Listed as the Bowne Block on the 1888 Sanborn map, this structure features a bracketed metal cornice, and eight segmental arch openings accented by brick window hoods. Stucco and brick obscures a large portion of the original storefront area which retains its recessed entrances and display window areas.

The Bowne Block had furnished rooms on the second floor and an office and restaurant on the first floor. By 1890 the Bowne Block was also known as the Hotel Palmer.
