The Bateman Hardware Store established in 1890 (see store advertisement on south facade of building) by George Bateman occupied this structure as early as 1909 (a hardware store is listed on the 1909 Sanborn Perris map). J.C. Patterson bought an interest in the store in 1924 and three years later with his son W.E., purchased the entire business. They moved out of the building in 1948. The building originally housed a jewelry store and meat market.
