A two story brick commercial building distinguished by a bracketed metal cornice and four asymmetrically arranged segmental arch bays. (the arrangement of the bays reflects the division of the store areas). The windows are highlighted by ornate caps. The lower storefront area is largely intact and even the Hardware sign remains. According to the 1890 Sanborn map, the hardware store shared the building with a millinery shop.

22) List Any Associated Cultural Group: n/a
