

A. W. KLARENBACH

A. W. Klarenbach is one of the leading carpenter contractors in Salida. He has erected many of the most substantial buildings here and he has been called to other cities to take charge of important work.

Mr. Klarenbach maintains a first class workshop, equipped with all the latest tools and machinery for the handling of his work.

Mr. Klarenbach is a member of the city council of Salida and has always stood for every measure that will add to the attractiveness of Salida or better its future. He was one of the strong supporters of the present paving program, and he devoted a great deal of his time to a study of various kinds of paving, their cost and efficiency. He believes in the future of Salida and thinks that if this city will take advantage of its natural resources it will develop into one of the largest cities in Colorado.

C. H. KELLEHER

C. H. Kelleher, manager of the Public Service company, is one of the outstanding business leaders of Salida.

There are no interruptions in light or power service in Salida due to plant failures, because the system is so constructed that a turn of a switch will give power from several sources.

Mr. Kelleher is active in the Chamber of Commerce. He was president of the Salida Lions club. In all civic affairs, he has taken an active part. During the Christmas celebrations, Mr. Kelleher volunteers the service of his electricians and furnishes the lighting for the tree without charge.

He has trained his employes to be polite, accommodating and helpful to the patrons of the company and he has thus built up a good will between the citizens and the company which is invaluable.

Mr. Kelleher has jurisdiction over the Saguache, as well as the Salida area of the Public Service company.

C. F. PROUDFOOT

C. F. Proudfoot is mayor of Salida and one of its outstanding citizens. Through his efforts, backed by the city council, he has paved the downtown streets of Salida with rock asphalt at a saving to the taxpayers that sets an example for other public officials. The cost of the paving is borne out of the general fund of the city, an unusual proceeding.

The cost of the paving will not exceed the interest charge alone on a bond issue for the so-called standard style of paving. If the paving lasts five years it can be entirely renewed at less cost than the interest in the five years would amount to on a bond issue for standard paving, not taking into account that the principal would some day have to be paid. The paving was done entirely by Salida labor at a time when work was not plentiful.

Mr. Proudfoot is also looking to the future water supply of Salida and hopes soon to have enough water to give the city complete service for many years to come. This also will be done along economical lines.

Mr. Proudfoot is chief clerk to the master mechanic of the D. & R. G. W. railroad. He served as a member of the city council before he was elected mayor. His administration has been marked by a spirit of progress.

CHARLES B. MACK

Charles B. Mack is supervisor of the Cochetopa National forest, a work which requires leadership, technical knowledge and business ability. The duty of a supervisor is to see that the forest is protected against fire and depredation, that the merchantable timber is cut and sold for revenue and for the improvement of the forest; to see that wild flowers and game animals in the forests are protected and propagated, to build roads and trails through the forest and to provide camping places for the people of the United States who wish to enjoy the blessings of their forests.

The handling of the Cochetopa forest was a big task in itself but the adding of the Leadville National forest has materially increased the area under Mr. Mack's supervision. He has a carefully trained staff, all of whom are loyal to him.

Mr. Mack made a survey of the forests before the government signed the contract for a paper mill.

Mr. Mack has made a special effort to protect the game animals and the wild flowers. He has many thousands of cattle and sheep grazing on the forest ranges and his dealings with the stockmen, the timber operators and others has always been friendly and helpful. He is always using his best efforts to have the streams of this section of the state plentifully stocked with trout.

C. M. FERNO

C. M. Ferno, president of the Salida Chamber of Commerce, has always taken a leading part in any movement for the benefit of Salida. He has served as a member of the city council, and was one of the most capable and efficient aldermen this town has ever had. He is past exalted ruler of the Elks lodge and is at present one of the trustees of that institution.

Mr. Ferno is chief clerk in the offices of the division superintendent of the D. & R. G. W. and as such has one of the most responsible and exacting positions on the railroad system.

Mr. Ferno has been offered promotions which would have taken him to a large city, but his love for Salida caused him to decline. He is wholeheartedly for Salida and her advancement.

D. A. ARGYS

D. A. Argys, head of the firm of Argys Bros. Garage, is noted as one of the leading automobile salesmen of the West. He has built up an immense business in the sale of Nash cars, standing first on the sales record list of this state, Wyoming and New Mexico.

The Argys garage in Salida is one of the largest and best equipped in Colorado. It is practically new, fire-proof and equipped in the most-up-to-date manner. A first class automobile shop is maintained in connection, where repairs are made on all makes of cars.

Mr. Argys began the automobile business in a small way, as a side line to his grocery business, but in a few years it had grown to its present proportions.

Mr. Argys takes a lively interest in all movements for the upbuilding of Salida and Chaffee county.

Although very large, the garage always is crowded with cars because of the first class service given by expert mechanics.

The Red Cross hospital, of which Dr. F. N. Cochems is manager, is one of the most widely known hospitals in the West. It attracts patients from many states.

Red Cross hospital is an accredited institution. The Red Cross Training school for nurses has graduated young women who are now holding positions as superintendents of hospitals in large cities in various parts of America while others have made a reputation as "specials."

The hospital is equipped with the most modern surgical equipment. The staff includes doctors and surgeons of recognized skill.

Drs. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., on their visits to the West call at the Red Cross hospital and Dr. Cochems' home.

FRANK A. MANSHEIM

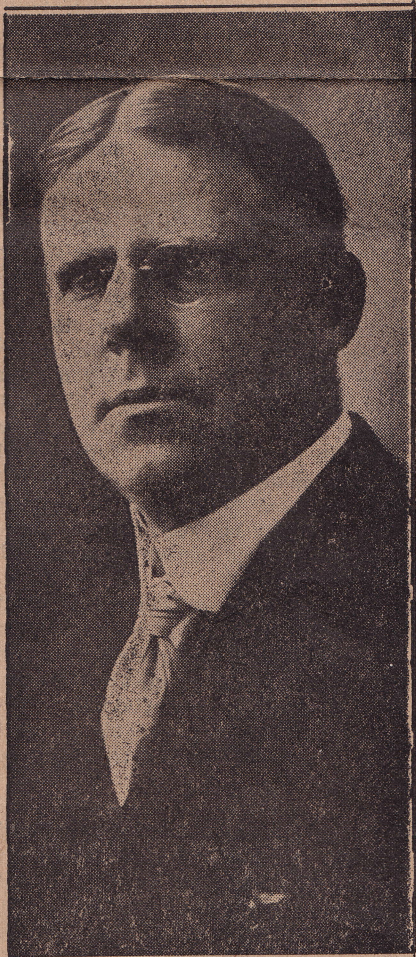

Frank A. Mansheim saw the possibility of the lettuce industry in the Salida district, and long before any of the farmers in this section took interest, he began making a study of the industry.

A few years ago he began to handle the lettuce and other vegetable crops for the farmers, of which he made a big success. The bad crop in 1929 was a drawback but the returns this year appear to be all that the farmer can reasonably expect, as a result of Mr. Mansheim's efforts many thousands of dollars revenue will be received from the lettuce and vegetable crops this year.

Mr. Mansheim operates a big lettuce loading shed. He also has several hundred acres of lettuce and garden truck lands under lease, all of which was cultivated this year.

Mr. Mansheim is shipping lettuce and other vegetables to the New York and other eastern markets. He employs a large force of men at his packing plant and in his lettuce fields. He has adopted a label for the lettuce which is now being recognized in all the larger cities of America.

Frank R. Kelly, owner of the Empress theater, is state senator from this district, and is the Republican candidate for lieutenant governor. During these busy political times he leaves the management of his theater to Mr. Goodenough.

O. E. GOODENOUGH

O. E. Goodenough is the man who takes Salida out for a laugh or a cry or both every day. He is manager of the Empress theater of which Frank R. Kelly is owner. He has had a long experience in the theater business and he is untiring in his efforts to make his theater patrons comfortable and contented.

Many little courtesies shown patrons have endeared him to the public. Mr. Goodenough says the public is easy to get along with, the secret of which is that Mr. Goodenough has the knack of getting along with people. He is always on the job for matinee and evening performances.

FRANK V. MUELLER

The Lincoln Memorial in Washington, one of the most beautiful memorial structures in the world, is built of Colorado marble, quarried and cut at the Yule marble works at Marble, Colo. Frank V. Mueller did the machine work on this beautiful marble, which was designed by one of the greatest sculptors in the world.

When the Mountain Cross Granite corporation began operations two years ago in Salida it selected Mr. Mueller as superintendent of plant and quarry. He organized the working force of the plant and has designed all the operations in the plant. The Mountain Cross plant is 602 feet long and 60 feet wide, the longest plant in the world. Twenty to sixty men are employed at the plant and quarry.

The granite produced is light, medium and dark grey, the darker shade predominating as the quarry attains depth. The quarry has been in operation for twenty years and it is the only ledge quarry in the grey granite district. Its product has been shipped to all parts of the United States West of the Mississippi river and to Illinois and Indiana. The company is now largely increasing its output.

The granite, finishes beautifully, being one of the most desirable for carving, sand blasting and tracing. It takes a beautiful polish that makes it a favorite with dealers.

DR. FRED J. CHRISTENSEN

Dr. Fred J. Christensen, city food inspector, has handled a difficult situation with genuine skill. It is not easy to please the producer and the consumer at the same time, but Dr.

Christensen appears to have succeeded without difficulty. He sees that the meats and milk supplied to the people of Salida are clean and wholesome. By using tact he has gained the confidence of all. Dr. Christensen has saved the Chaffee county hog owners many thousands of dollars by heading off diseases before they had gained great headway. He has rendered similar service to cattlemen and sheepmen.

Owners of family pets have found him a valuable friend in need.

Dr. Christensen is a graduate of Colorado Agricultural college, where he received his D. V. M. Degree. He is a lover of animals, enthusiastic about his work and tireless in his efforts to serve the public.

FRED L. BATEMAN

Fred L. Bateman saw Salida first. He came here as a boy with his father, when this was a village of a few houses and a water tank. They started a hardware store, and tinshop business, and with faith in the future, they built up one of the largest businesses of its kind in the state. Mr. Bateman has retired from active business but he has not given up his keen interest in Salida and Chaffee county.

Having seen this town grow from a village and having been largely instrumental in that growth, he looks confidently into the future, expecting this some day to be a large city.

Although Mr. Bateman has retired from active business he is far from inactive. He is in the prime of life. He takes a keen interest in public affairs and he has many private interests which keep him busy.

The firm which his father and he established has prospered and still bears the Bateman name.

Mr. Bateman is fond of outdoor life and spends considerable time on the fishing streams. He has viewed the scenery of Salida for fifty years but each year he finds new charms in it, and although he spends several months of each year in California with his children, he is always glad to be back in his home town.

Mr. Bateman is a past exalted ruler of the Salida Elks and he is a devoted member of that order.

G. A. MILES

G. A. Miles, manager of the Gibson Motor company in Salida, dealers in Chevrolet cars and trucks, grew up in the business. He began his automobile career by sweeping floors. He went into the mechanical department where he learned all phases of shop work. Next he was transferred to the accounting department and from there he entered the sales department. Always he had the advantage of efficient supervisors.

Mr. Miles came to Salida from Sterling on July 10 to assume the management of the Gibson Motor company and from the start he began to show an improvement in the business.

"Experience in all branches of the automobile service has taught me," said Mr. Miles, "that one must be fair to the public. The public knows little of the technicalities of the business, but in the long run it knows fair business methods from unfair methods.

"I have confidence in the Chevrolet line and therefore find it easy to sell. Chevrolet has more to offer than others selling in its price class.

"It is my desire and aim for my company to win the confidence and goodwill of the people of Salida and community by rendering as nearly 100 per cent service and co-operation as possible."

MRS. GENEVIEVE E. COLMAN

Mrs. Genevieve E. Colman, manager of the Colman Poster Advertising Service, since the death of her husband, the late William A. Colman, which occurred January 13, 1928, has made a splendid success of the business. The business was founded by her husband, who had had many years experience in it. He was a native of Leadville, but he had spent many years in Denver in the advertising business.

Mr. Colman secured contracts for outdoor advertising in Salida and Leadville, and he was in Leadville on business, when he died suddenly. Mrs. Colman was unable to live in Leadville on account of the altitude, and the family home was in Denver.

Mrs. Colman decided to remove to Salida to manage the business. With her is associated her son-in-law, Maurice W. Bauer.

Mrs. Colman is a native of New York but she has made her home in Colorado for thirty years, mostly in Denver.

Mrs. Colman has made many friends in business and socially since coming to Salida, and she deserves great credit for the ability she has displayed in carrying on the business, a responsibility that was thrust upon her without warning.

George G. Everett holds a leading place in Chaffee county as a cattleman, ranchman and public spirited citizen. He is the owner of a pure bred herd of Hereford cattle. He has also taken a leading part in the development of the lettuce growing industry in this county, while his general farming activities are extensive.

Mr. Everett is an enthusiastic supporter of all movements to develop the farming interests of this county. He is active in water protective association work, in the Farmers' Union, in the cattlemen's association, and in every other movement for the betterment of farming conditions.

Mr. Everett promoted the first rodeo ever held in Salida and he has been selected every year since to take charge of that annual event. He has succeeded in bringing to Salida some of the most famous race horses, saddle ponies, bucking horses and other rodeo features, and he has been equally successful in interesting the most skillful rodeo performers to include Salida in their itinerary.

Mr. Everett is a product of Chaffee county and one of its most loyal sons.

GRANT EMEHISER

Grant Emehiser, one of the leading dairymen of Chaffee county, has been in the dairy business since childhood. He was in the dairy business in Leadville before he removed to Salida twenty-seven years ago to engage in general farming.

Thirteen years ago he again returned to the dairy business and he has built up a splendid business. He delivers milk to the Salida homes.

Mr. Emehiser's dairy is inspected regularly by the state and city authorities and successfully meets all requirements. The public is invited to visit his dairy at any time.

Mr. Emehiser is a believer in Chaffee county and he is interested in every movement that tends to the progress of this community.

HARTMAN LYONS

Hartman Lyons, owner of the Consolidated Ice Co., is the pioneer iceman of Salida. His lakes, fed from pure clear springs, interrupted in their flow into the Little Arkansas river, are protected against every contamination. He supplies Salida with a clear, clean ice.

Mr. Lyons has a lake, not used for ice-cutting where he permits the youngsters to skate in winter while he is busy filling his ice-houses with blocks from the other lakes. His plant is located at the city limits.

Mr. Lyons always has taken a keen interest in public affairs. He has the interests of Chaffee county at heart and believes in its future. Therefore every cause for the betterment of the community has, not only his good will but his aid.

He has prospered. His business has grown from a small beginning into one of the biggest natural ice plants in the state.

HORACE G. FRANTZ

Horace G. Frantz is one of the men who is trying to put Salida before the eyes of the entire country.

In 1926, Mr. Frantz, who is an experienced fish culturist and fur bearing animal grower, foresaw the possibilities of a large commercial hatchery being made of the Mt. Shavano Trout Farm and purchased it. Today it is one of the show places of Salida and is a marvel to most people with its hundreds of thousands of Rainbow trout, varying from the small fry up to twelve pounds each, and requiring a daily feed of two thousands pounds.

He has made the Mt. Shavano Trout farm the most modern farm of its kind—one continual line of concrete rearing ponds with a flow of cold spring water amounting to 10,000 gallons a minute, that assures you of a Rainbow trout with a sweet, clean taste and no taint of moss or mud.

In the fur department of his business, Mr. Frantz has also been very successful, his mink and foxes taking numerous prizes at the National show in Portland, Ore., during the latter part of 1929.

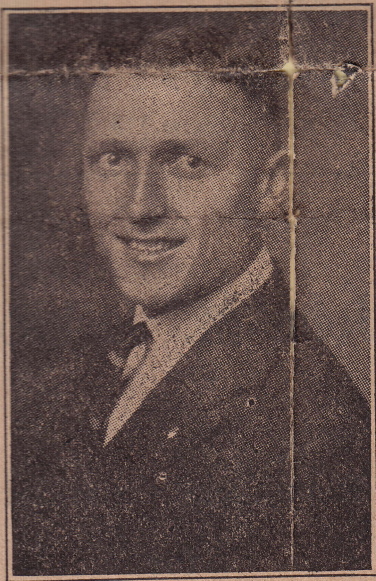

Mr. Frantz is making plans to ship eventually, two million Rainbow trout a year. His company is now shipping to all parts of the country—from New York to California and from Minnesota to Texas.

He is a great lover of the outdoors and every form of outdoor activity. He is an enthusiastic airplane and glider pilot and has his own glider. He plans some day to own a plane and use it for both business and pleasure.

Mr. Frantz extends to all a cordial invitation to visit the Frantzhurst Rainbow Trout farm at any time.

JOSEPH H. CENCEL

Joseph H. Cencel, head of the Grunander Motor company, dealers in Ford cars and trucks, is one of the most popular businessmen in Salida. Mr. Cencel has made a splendid record in the sale of Ford cars in this territory. He and his employes are courteous to the public and due to this fact his garage and shop business have grown greatly since he took over the business.

The shop is equipped with all the modern appliances for the giving of first class Ford service and carries a full line of Ford parts for old and new models. The shop also handles repairs on all other makes of cars.

Mr. Cencel is a veteran of the World War. He takes a keen interest in the public affairs of Salida and is always willing to do his part to make Salida a bigger and better town.

His fine personality, his square dealing with the public and his good service, has amply repaid him, because his business is flourishing and he enjoys the friendship of a large circle of friends.

JUDGE JOSEPH NEWITT

Thirty years ago the citizens of Chaffee county elected Joseph Newitt as county judge, and they have never regretted it. He has served continuously in that office ever since, being now in his eighth term of four years.

The records of the county court of Chaffee county are a model. Every record is kept perfectly, and lawyers who have occasion to refer to them, never tire of praising the painstaking efforts which Judge Newitt has given to this important work. Many important estates, and in many cases the rights of children have been successfully sustained because the records were on file and complete.

Judge Newitt has been seldom opposed for the office because the people generally recognize his ability and trustworthiness.

Judge Newitt was born in England. His brother, Robert Newitt, came to Granite in 1864. Judge Newitt and his brother farmed on Trout creek for many years and meanwhile engaged in mining. The town of Newett on Trout creek, was named for them. This town once had 700 legal voters but with the slump in silver, it went the way of many other mining towns in Colorado. Nothing remains of it today.

Judge Newitt is known and respected by nearly everyone in Chaffee county, and it is certain he will be county judge as long as he wishes to serve. His present term does not expire until 1932.

J. W. Burgner

J. W. Burgner was one of the first men in Colorado to see the possibilities of the trucking business. He started in a small way to handle freight by truck between Salida and Pueblo. The business grew and prospered and Mr. Burgner finally was recognized by the Colorado Public Utilities commission. He has been granted a license for a truck line known as the Pueblo-Salida Truck line.

Mr. Burgner has entered into a traffic agreement with the Stegal Truck line which operates between Denver and Pueblo, and with the Rio Grande Motorways, Inc., which operates between Salida and Alamosa and Monte Vista. This tie-up gives patrons a through service from Denver and Pueblo to Alamosa and Monte Vista.

The freight depots of this service are located at 201 River St., Pueblo, at 1200 Wazee street, Denver, 429 South Ninth street, Canon City, and 370 West Front street, Salida.

Mr. Burgner has striven constantly to improve the service and he is now giving absolute satisfaction to his patrons.

Mr. Burgner is to be congratulated on the splendid progress he has made in the transportation business from a very humble beginning. His trucks are first class and cover the territory on a fast schedule. Trucks leave Denver daily, except Sunday at 11 a. m. and 5:00 p. m., also 3 p. m. on Saturdays. Pueblo daily except Sunday at 4:30 p. m.

LESTER VAUGHN

Lester Vaughn is manager of the George W. Vaughn grocery, feed and hardware and implement business and is assisted by Fred Vaughn, Miss Jessie Vaughn, Jim Medrano and Mearl Brown. They started this business in a small way in 1902 and it is now one of the leading business concerns in this section of the state.

The Vaughns believe in the progress of Salida. They have invested their money in first class buildings.

Lester Vaughn is an authority on freight rates and he has succeeded in obtaining for the farmers of Chaffee county freight rates on their products that enable them to find more favorable markets.

The business of the Vaughns is growing year by year and is extending always into new territory.

Lester Vaughn takes a leading part in the activities of the Chamber of Commerce and he has always shown a willingness to do everything in his power for the advancement of the city.

Leslie L. Lippard, proprietor of the Lippard Electric Shop is the man of the minute. No electrical trouble appears to be too intricate for him to solve. He is a graduate of Salida High school and he took to electricity like a man born to the trade.

Mr. Lippard is a quiet, fast worker and he is thoroughly equipped to handle every kind of electrical work.

Since opening his shop in his own building he has greatly increased his business and has added to his force.

He handles all kinds of electrical equipment and is an expert and honest adviser on all things electrical.

Mr. Lippard takes a keen interest in civic affairs and always does his share in making the city progress.

MISS MARY E. MASON

Miss Mary E. Mason is a daughter of one of the pioneers of this section. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Mason, were natives of New York. They lived for a time in Wisconsin and they came to Buena Vista with their family in 1880.

Mr. Mason established a coal business which continued in the family until a few weeks ago when it was sold to Elmer S. Steel.

After the death of the elder Mr. Mason, his son, the late O. S. Mason, conducted the business until his health failed. Miss Mason had conducted the business two years until she sold it.

Miss Mason was postmaster of Buena Vista for four and a half years during the Wilson administrations. One of the principal achievements of which she is proud is that in spite of much opposition, she succeeded in having the postoffice removed to a building used exclusively for post office business. The move has since met with popular approval.

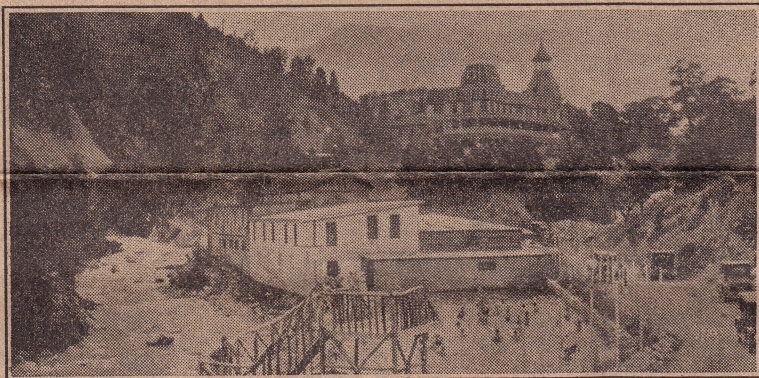

Miss Mason is a charter member of the Fortnightly club of Buena Vista, and one of the leading members of that organization. She loves Colorado and considers Buena Vista an ideal home town.

MT. PRINCETON HOTEL AND POOL

Mount Princeton Hotel, twenty-two miles west of Salida and nine miles from Buena Vista, is located in one of the most beautiful scenic settings life in the pure mountain air.

The mineral hot springs for which this hotel is famous gush from a great depth in the earth. The water in Colorado. The towering Mount Princeton, higher than Pikes Peak, rises above it. The magnificent Chalk Creek gulch, with its clear trout stream, begins at the hotel grounds and is traversed by a first class highway just completed.

Golf, tennis, polo, mountain climbing, swimming, motoring, and horse back riding are among the sports in which the guests at this hotel indulge.

The hotel is situated close enough to Salida and Buena Vista for the accommodation of the guests and yet it is in a secluded spot in the mountains where one can rest and take on new is healthful to drink and to bathe in. Steam baths are part of the hotel service. The big outdoor pool and the indoor pool afford pleasure the year round to bathers.

The hotel is easily approached over gravelled automobile roads, and road signs mark the way.

The rates are reasonable and the cuisine is praised by all who sojourn at this hotel. Mrs. Esther Kent, a highly experienced hotel manager, is in charge of the hotel and has built up its patronage and its reputation as a first class resort.

O. E. GOODENOUGH

O. E. Goodenough is the man who takes Salida out for a laugh or a cry or both every day. He is manager of the Empress theater of which Frank R. Kelly is owner. He has had a long experience in the theater business and he is untiring in his efforts to make his theater patrons comfortable and contented.

Many little courtesies shown patrons have endeared him to the public. Mr. Goodenough says the public is easy to get along with, the secret of which is that Mr. Goodenough has the knack of getting along with people. He is always on the job for matinee and evening performances.

S. A. MOHLER

S. A. Mohler, postmaster of Salida, is a veteran of the World War. He was appointed postmaster, after having made the highest grade in the civil service examination for the position. He was educated at McPherson college, McPherson, Kansas.

Since assuming the management of the postoffice, Mr. Mohler has made many changes and has done much to improve the service. He is greatly interested in obtaining a new federal building for Salida and in developing the postal business of this city.

Mr. Mohler has become personally acquainted with most of the patrons of the postoffice and is always eager to cooperate in every way to make the service more efficient.

STEVE TREFONE

When Steve Trefone and his partner Gus Mehos started the Mehos & Trefone Grocery and Meat Market, it occupied a small room at First and F streets but it now has grown into the two adjoining store rooms and is one of the flourishing businesses of Salida.

Mr. Trefone takes an interest not only in the grocery and meat business but in other lines of endeavor as well. This season he has become interested in the lettuce and vegetable shipping industry.

Mr. Trefone is known as an expert buyer in the grocery line. He is a hard worker, always on the job, and attentive to the wants of his customers.

In addition to the regular lines of groceries and meats the store handles imported goods that are in big demand in Salida.

Mr. Trefone takes an active interest in the progress of Salida and assumes his share in any movement for the city's progress.

MISS THERESA M. RYAN

Miss Theresa M. Ryan is manager of the Golden Rule Mercantile company and one of the owners of the business. She has had a thorough training in the department store business both in buying and selling, and the store in her charge is one of the most successful in the state.

The store handles clothing and shoes for every member of the family and a fine stock of piece goods, as well as other articles that are to be found in a department store.

Miss Ryan is among the first to lend her aid to any movement to advance the progress of Salida. She has a large circle of personal friends, and through her skillful management, the business has grown year by year.

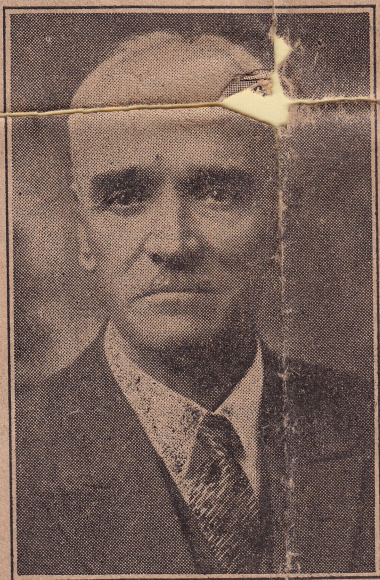

Merchandise for the business is bought twice a year on personal visits to the Eastern markets.

DR. T. L. A. SHAFFER

Dr. T. L. A. Shaffer, county physician, has taken a special pride in the county hospital, and has made that institution one of the finest of its kinds in the smaller counties of the state. Although not equipped for operative work, the medical cases are given the best of care.

He also is on the staff of the Red Cross hospital.

He is a former football star, a great lover of athletics and outdoor sports. He is one of the most ardent supporters of the Salida High school football team.

He devotes his time as dutifully to the care of the county charges as to his regular practice.

J. Q. Rose is superintendent of the county hospital and to him is due much of the success which the institution has attained. Mr. Rose is a friend to all the patients and looks after them like a brother.

Chaffee county prides itself on the care it gives its unfortunates, some of whom formerly were thrifty citizens. In the county hospital they receive as much care as in a private institution.

W. A. BONDURANT

W. A. Bondurant, one of the leading dairymen of Chaffee county, prides himself on the fact that he has a herd which is tubercular tested and that the city health inspector and the state milk inspectors have never found fault with his cows or his dairying methods.

Mr. Bondurant has lived in Chaffee county for twenty-five years, mostly as a ranchman. He entered the dairy business twelve years ago, beginning with three cows, and he now has a large herd.

Mr. Bondurant has a large milk route in Salida. He has prospered in the business, because he sells clean, pure milk, and gives prompt service to all his customers.

Mr. Bondurant is a member of the Fremont, Custer and Chaffee Counties Herd Improvement association, which aims to equip all dairies with only the best healthy cows. All the dairy equipment at the Bondurant dairy is up-to-date.

Mr. Bondurant is a busy man, as most dairymen are, but he is interested in the growth of Chaffee county, and he believes that the milk produced here is as fine as can be had anywhere in the nation.

WEBB BUNGALOWS, BUENA VISTA

W. H. WEBB

When W. H. Webb came to Buena Vista eight years ago, he recognized the opportunities it afforded to one who would encourage the tourist trade. He has conducted the Webb hotel for eight years during which time he greatly improved it.

Believing that there was room in Buena Vista for a first class tourist camp, Mr. Webb erected twenty-five cottages and a shower bath. These cottages consisted of one and two rooms. The patronage was so good Mr. Webb was encouraged to make a bolder venture. He erected sixteen modern bungalows of one, two and three rooms, modern throughout, with hot and cold running water, bath and toilet in each bungalow.

This camp was completed two years ago, and it has been patronized liberally during the tourist season. In winter Mr. Webb rents the cottages to families permanently residing in Buena Vista.

As a result of Mr. Webb's enterprise, many tourists who would not have stopped at all, or who would have remained only over night, now find themselves so conveniently located, that they remain for several days and sometimes for weeks.

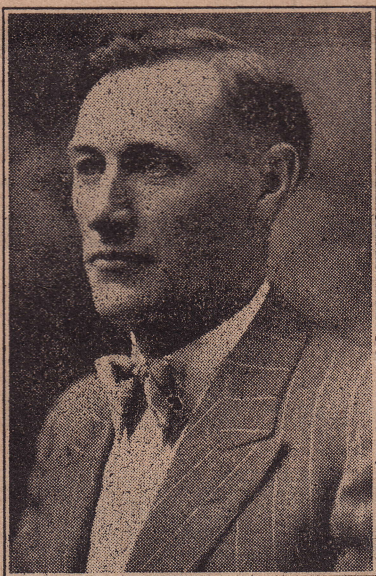

Mr. Webb never overlooks an opportunity to call the attention of tourists to the wonderful scenery, the mountain drives, the hot springs and the fine fishing in lakes and streams. Tourists find his tourist bungalows and cottage camp a home like place and they always leave with a promise to return another season.

Through Mr. Webb's efforts all the business houses of Buena Vista benefit because the tourists patronize every line. Many of them plan to have summer cottages of their own in the mountains or near the lakes.

Mr. Webb loves the beautiful country which surrounds him and he finds a genuine pleasure in his work which is to please the traveling public.

W. T. SNEDDON

W. T. Sneddon bought the Valley View Dairy three years ago and since that time has built it up as one of the most prosperous dairies in the county. He was particularly adapted to the business, having been around cattle all his life. He was born in Chaffee county and learned the range cattle, dairy cattle and general ranching business in boyhood.

Mr. Sneddon was one of the first to offer his cooperation with the city health inspector and the state dairy inspectors in making his herd sanitary and healthy, and in improving the quality of his milk.

The inspectors frequently complimented him, because his barns, dairy lots, milk houses and sterilizing equipment conform to the last word in dairy sanitation.

The Valley View Dairy is located two miles West of Salida. Water for the cows comes from pure mountain springs tapped by a well on the ranch. No weeds or other vegetation that might give a rank taste to milk can be found on the ranch.

With clean, healthy cattle surrounded by sanitary methods Mr. Sneddon is able to furnish a high quality of milk to his customers. He delivers milk to the homes of Salida and he has more than trebled the business since he bought it.
