INTRODUCTORY.

We take pleasure and considerable pride in presenting for the consideration of the people of Leadville this our Thirty-first Volume of the City Directory.

While the City Directory has come to be more and more an indispensable feature of modern business and social life, few people realize the vast amount of research and painstaking effort necessary to produce a work such as this.

We extend our thanks to the people of Leadville for their uniform courtesy to our solicitors in quest of information and the merchants for their generous patronage to make a work of this kind possible, and trust it is well deserved and will prove a good investment.

Respectfully,

BALLENGER & RICHARDS.
