CARNEGIE LIBRARY FORMALLY OPENED

In America's eyes are fixed on many things,
The fate of empires and the fall of kings;
And quacks of state-mongers each propose his plan,
And even children lip the rights of man;
In this mighty fuss just let me mention,
The rights of woman merit some attention

The above was the quotation used by Mayor Buchanan in his speech of acceptance when President Mrs. Florence Lippard formally turned over to the city, last evening, the Carnegie Public Library. The mayor further said, in well chosen words, that it was a pleasure to him as well as an honor, that fate should shape it so that he should be the man to accept such a gift, in behalf of the city, from the Tuesday Evening Club. He extolled Andrew Carnegie for his indomitable will and foresight that had placed him at the head of the money world, yet left him so thoughtful of the welfare of the coming generation; being the means of building so many libraries that might never have been started but for him, who, believing that 90 per cent of the money given to charity was wasted, has given enormous amounts to start libraries that others might finish them, and ours was no exception. Mrs. Lippard's presentation speech was clear cut and well spoken. She said that the ceremonies of the evening were the culmination of years of labor, the result being the attainment of their aspiration, that they were enabled to present the city with a thing of beauty that would be a joy forever. It was with pleasure almost akin to pain that the presentation was made, for the club had nurtured their plan until it had outgrown them and was to be turned over to the city.

Prof. Kesner being unavoidably absent sent his greetings, which were read by Mrs. Duncan. He expressed his appreciation in no uncertain words, assuring the Tuesday evening club that both teacher and pupils would find abundant use for such a library.

After the brief exercises the crowd gradually passed to the assembly room, where delicious punch was served and music furnished on the piano by the various ladies. The charter members of the club present were: Mrs. J. W. Deen, Mrs. Ben Disman, Mrs. Wm. Rech, Mrs. Lily Mosgrove, and Mrs. W. G. Sisson. All the other ladies of the Tuesday Evening club were present besides many of the towns people.

Salida is proud of the Tuesday Evening Club for it is because of their tireless energy and self-sacrifice that we now have such a library as this one. The starting of the library work dates back to 1896 when the first books were secured and they were allowed to keep them in the school building. This was just two years after the election of the first president, Mrs. Mary C. Ridgway, who donated the lots for the library. After using the school building for some time it was decided to rent a room on West Second street which was accordingly done, and the ladies of the club, in order to meet expenses, moved the books out of the way and then back again to rent their room for election. The library was then moved to the corner of 3rd and F, and after that to the City hall, where no rent was charged. During these years of work many entertainments were given and receptions held and the proceeds of the entertainments given to the purchase of books and bookcases.

During these years of work the president's chair was occupied by Mrs. Sisson, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Marvin, Mrs. Spray, and Mrs. Lippard. About 1902 the ladies got in communication with Andrew Carnegie and soon had arrangements made for the building of a $15,000 library, $9,000 of which was paid by Carnegie, the balance being raised by the ladies of the Tuesday Evening Club by dint of the use of their brains and because of their indomitable courage.

The Club at Home.

The Rally meeting of the Tuesday Evening club proved a most delightful beginning for the club year just opening.

It was something of a "jollification" for the members, as it was the "home coming" of the club into their new quarters in the assembly hall in the basement of the new library building.

It was celebrated by the members all bringing something useful for furnishing the kitchen and club room. Among the gifts were tables, spoons, coffee pot, dish pans, tea towels, in fact almost everything which could be thought of.

One present of which the ladies are very proud indeed, is the fine electric clock, the gift of Mr. D. J. Kramer. It occupies a prominent place in the assembly room and will serve to warn the ladies how rapidly fly the pleasant moments.

The program for the evening was opened by a piano solo by Mrs. Werner which was greatly enjoyed by all, she graciously responded to the prolonged encore with another solo even more pleasing than the first.

The president, Mrs. W. C. Alexander then gave a very full and comprehensive report of the real work accomplished by the federation clubs as gleaned from the various reports at the federation. Mrs. Deen, one of the delegates, gave a report of the work of the legislative committee and what they had accomplished. Mrs. Chapman reported the several sessions, mentioning the musical numbers and other points of interest. Mrs. Gravett read the educational reports as given by Mrs. Churchill at the federation.

Refreshments of cake and coffee followed during which time Mrs. Chapman favored the ladies with several beautiful selections upon the piano. The coffee was especially delicious, being furnished and made by Mrs. Wheeler.

At last the ladies of the Tuesday Evening club feel repaid for all their years of hard work for now they have a club home of which they are very proud.

NEW LIBRARY FORMALLY OPENED

The new Public Library was formally opened last Monday evening at a reception tendered the public by the Tuesday Evening Club, at which time the books belonging to that organization were turned over to the city. It was a great occasion, and a happy one to the members of this club for their "hopes and fears of all the years" were that day realized. The club members, gowned in white, each wearing a red carnation, were all present and assisted in the care and entertainment of the guests. In the receiving line were Mrs. Lippard, Mrs. Ridgway, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Marvin, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Sisson, Mrs. Spray, Mrs. Disman, Mrs. Rech, Mrs. Deen, Mrs. Mosgrove, and Mayor Buchanan.

It was nine o'clock when the president, Mrs. Lippard, called the large assemblage to order and spoke as follows:

"Tis said, that 'A thing of beauty is a joy forever,' and I am sure that whenever any of us pass by this beautiful building our hearts swell with joy and pride. And now as the time has come when we, who have loved and cherished our treasure as a mother cherishes her only daughter, are to let it pass from our care, it is with pleasure akin to pain that we give up our guardianship. The hopes and the fears, the trials and delays that have accompanied our task have but endeared the building to our hearts.

"This is a proud moment for every Tuesday Evening Club woman. At last, after years of hard struggle, we see the culmination of all our efforts and our hopes. We have nurtured our child from its tiniest infancy, and have watched it grow and develop until now it has expanded into the realization of our fondest hopes and dreams, and as it now passes into the care of others it is with a mother's love that we give it up, and with a mother's love will we always devote our best efforts to it. May it prove to be an ever increasing blessing, bringing pleasure to ourselves and hope and comfort to others. May each succeeding year broaden its influence in the community. The books gathered during the years while we were waiting for this building to become a reality, are very dear to our hearts, and in giving them to you we feel we are committing to your care a priceless treasure.

"And you who have so generously aided us in making the realization possible, we extend our heart felt thanks, and we trust that for any sacrifice you may have made in giving this aid, you will be compensated a thousand fold by the benefits you and your children may receive in the years to come.

"Honorable Mayor, we present through you, the deed that conveys to the City of Salida this building and the lots upon which it stands, to have and to hold forever, and we only hope that, as the years go by, those having it in charge may say, 'They builded better than they knew.'

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB PRESENTS AN INTERESTING SKETCH

Better speech formed the basis for a most interesting program of the Home and Current Events department of the Tuesday Evening Club which met in Assembly Hall Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Parkinson was the leader and demonstrated the fact that the art of good conversation should be cultivated. We are constantly on trial and out intellectual ability is being judged by our conversation. An especially interesting feature of this part of the program was a letter written to the judges by a woman of Salem in 1692. This letter was a plea to the judges who had condemned her to death for sorcery. It was read for the purpose of contrasting the purity of the language of that time with that of our present day speech. The condemned woman was an ancestress of Dr. Newton of this city and this letter is one of his cherished possessions.

At the close of Mrs. Parkinson's address the members entered into an animated discussion as to whether heredity or environment is the greater factor in good speech.

Mrs. Ferno made the current events period very interesting thru her review and discussion of a number of live topics. She closed with a brief sketch of the life and poetry of Frank L. Stanton. His poems, "Keep a Goin'" and "Mighty Lak' a Rose," were read and an account given of how the latter poem was written. He was standing by the bedside of his little son who was very ill, when some one remarked, "Isn't he sweet; he looks just like a rose." Stanton rushed to his room and the words of this beautiful song came pouring forth from his soul. They have since been set to music and have become the favorite lullaby of mothers all over the world. Miss Pantan then sang this song to an audience which understood and appreciated it as never before. She also sang, "I Know a Garden." Mrs. Woody accompanied both these numbers and played a piano solo.

At the close of this delightful program, a social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. Ray Hanks and Mrs. Jones hostesses.

T.E.C. CELEBRATE 20th ANNIVERSARY

Amid a blaze of light, in a bower of flowers, with many beautiful gowns in evidence, cheered by the sweetest of songs by singers who always charm, the members of the Tuesday Evening Club celebrated in royal style their twentieth birthday, on last Tuesday evening in their cozy, comfortable club rooms in Assembly hall.

Elaborate preparations had been made to have this important event one of the most notable in the history of the club.

Invitations were sent to all the old time members and also to the state and district federation officers. Many of those, who were unable to be present, sent their greetings and telegrams were received from Mrs. J. M. Duncan of Los Angeles, Mrs. Ruth Spray, who is now in Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Garretson, the state president, Miss Watkins of Grand Junction, and several others.

The decorating committee under the guidance of Miss Mabel Gloyd, as chairman, transformed the home into a veritable bower of beauty.

The entrance hall, in which the delicious two-course luncheon was served, was made a dream of fairyland, by the use of strings of red and white carnations—the colors of the club—suspended from the ceiling. Potted ferns and bouquets of red and white carnations were placed in every available space and the luncheon tables were each decorated with a vase of these flowers.

The club room proper was also profusely and artistically decorated with vases of these flowers, and also with several bunches of magnificent yellow and white chrysanthemums. Smilax and trailing ferns were everywhere entwined.

New rugs and a most comfortable davenport have been added to the club's furniture and these gave the rooms a most elegant and "homey" appearance.

The ladies are justly proud of their beautiful and cozy home and spared no effort on this occasion.

Mrs. Rose Ridgway, as mistress of ceremonies, greeted the guests in the hall and conducted them to the ladies who were receiving. These were: Mrs. Lily Mosgrove, the president, Mrs. A. C. Ridgway of Chicago, the club's first president, twenty years ago, Mrs. Mary I. Sisson, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. Marvin, Mrs. W. J. Lippard, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, all past presidents, and the following charter members: Mrs. L. F. Cornwell of Pueblo, Mrs. Wm. Rech, Mrs. J. W. Deen and Mrs. B. Disman.

In assembly hall, made beautiful by the new pictures, bas-reliefs and handsome flag and staff presented by the Tuesday Club, the annual meeting of the Tuesday Evening Club was held Monday Evening. After the installation of officers the annual committees for the year were named. A very delightful program followed, Mrs. Chapman leading with the beautiful spinning song, and graciously responding to an encore. A double quartet from the Methodist church sang, and the ladies quartet followed with a very pleasant number. Very nice refreshments were served during the social hour, and the club was delighted to entertain during that time Mr. and Mrs. Ignay Haroldi, and their pianist, Rudolph Polak, the Bohemian pianist.

About eighty ladies were present and many beautiful gowns were worn.

After the guests had assembled a program followed, consisting of short talks by each of the past presidents who were present, in which they gave a brief resume of the work accomplished during their term of office.

Each of these speakers was introduced most gracefully and tactfully by the presiding officer, Mrs. Mosgrove, who is so well acquainted with the experiences of each president's work, that she could do this as one with less knowledge of the club could not do.

These reminiscences were most delightful, especially to those who have been members for the greater part of these twenty years, and only those who have worked together through these years of storm and stress as well as pleasure and profit, can appreciate and realize what this twentieth anniversary meant to them, and it caused a warm glow around the heart of many present as these old times were recalled.

Musical numbers were interspersed with these talks, adding greatly to the pleasure of all. They were given by Misses Nona Campbell, Ruth Elofson, Rose Craig and Mrs. Losee, and it was remarked by many that each of these ladies sang better than ever they had before.

Among the many birthday gifts which the club received was a twenty dollar gold piece of the newest die, and of Colorado gold, given by one of the old-time members.

The fact that Mrs. D. P. Cook was chairman of the refreshment committee assured all that this feature of the celebration would be quite in harmony with the rest and no one was in the least disappointed; this was a fitting climax to a most delightful reunion.

Message read by
Mrs. Kech -

On occasion of Fortieth Anniversary

I have been asked to give some of the earlier social activities of the T. E. C.

Forty years - you must realize is a long way back -

But I will do the best I can -

1
Forty years ago, when the
"Tuesday Evening Club"
was first organized,

The idea of a Public Library began to take shape in the minds of its members. As

Mrs. Inghouse & Mrs. Jones have just told you, and many social activities that might be instrumental in bringing about the desired result, were planned.

The money obtained from the various 2. activities to be used in the purchasing of books -

I will only mention a few of these activities, not all of them however,
were given for financial gain - but for the benefit of the community -

The first that I recall was a , Dickens play, this was quite an elaborate affair
given in the Opera House which was filled to its capacity.
Mrs Helen Cook

acted as chairman of this intertainment and made a most capable leader - Days were spent in the sale of tickets
This play netted the Club $2.00

Not long after the Club gave a Minuet show this was more for fun & pleasure than for profit and caused much amus-ment.

Later the Club, sponsored, a Chautauqua,

4 held in Marino Park, (this attracted many people,
Some of them bring in tents for the entire week, Most excellent talent was secured by the Club, both in Entertainers and speakers - These included
Sen. La Follet and Carrie Nation of - Kansas Bachet James
& the famous Champ Clark
We naturally formed groups in the raised seat section visiting during intermission
I remember so well the afternoon La Follete was to speak - while we were waiting for the speaker, some one whispered

Oh! There's the bride - what bride? why Dr Cuzman's bride. of course there was a general craning of necks, to glimpse the bride -

A bride you know's always interesting -
Mrs Cuzman later became a valuable member of the Club.
this was in 1907 - since that-time the lovely daughters of the
C. have become members of

The Club also sponsored a Lyceum Bureau Entertainment course - for several years.

This was before the time of morning pictures and the radio - <sup>and</sup> were well attended netting the Club a financial profit.

I recall a home talent entertainment -

"A day in a Union Station" with about one hundred people in the cast.
A wonderful success
in every way -

An exhibition of Fancy dancing under the leadership of Prof. Flint was given in the old skating rink now occupied by the Electric Light Co. Booths of all kinds were presided over by Club members. This entertainment netted the Club, quite a sum about $400.

There were many more social activities that I might mention but

I think there will prove to you that The Y. C. C. has not been active along literary lines alone in the early years of its history but also in providing entertainment for the whole community

Tuesday Evening Club Meets

The first general meeting of the Tuesday Evening Club was held Sept. 24 at the Assembly hall with Mrs. Bessie Shewalter presiding. There were eighty members and guests present.

Reports of the state convention held at Grand Junction were given by Mrs. Shewalter, Mrs. Gorman and Mrs. Cole.

A very enjoyable program was then presented under the direction of Mrs. Inez Cole, chairman of the Home and Current Events department.

The American Legion Auxiliary trio sang "The Boat Song" and "The Piper From Over the Way."

The guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. Inez Johnson Lewis, state superintendent of public instruction, who gave a most interesting talk on "The Artistic Side of the Movies."

Delicious refreshments were served by the Literature, Music and Art department with Miss May Carney as chairman. She was assisted by Miss Mildred EnEarl; Mrs. D. F. Rouse Miss Holtorf, Mrs. Heckman and Mrs. Croser.

Citizens May Exhibit In Salida Flower Show

A great deal of interest is being shown in the flower show to be held on August 20 at the Elks home.

Have you something to exhibit which does not come under the flower show classifications? Space will be provided to take care of any exhibit brought in.

If you have any inquiry to make regarding your exhibits you may get in touch with Mrs. H. R. Hay, Mrs. W. C. Heckman or Mrs. Phillip Muta.

They will give you any information which you may desire.

Plan on attending the flower show. It will be open both afternoon and evening so those who cannot come out in the afternoon will have an opportunity to attend. Stop in on your way to the band concert or visit the flower show after the concert at the park.

An interesting program has been prepared by Mrs. Edith Gorman and her committee, which will be given during the show. There will be no admittance charge.

The Angel of Shavano

THROUGH the echoing depths of night
Amber stars with singing light
Play on the hills their liquid, crystal notes;
While on the pulsing strings of the harp of the moon
The wind sweeps the chords and the echoes croon
To the Angel of Shavano.

THE mystic, snow-clad mountains gleam
With the virginal light of a half-dreamed dream
Through the veiling clouds luminous, slow,
Through the rifts in the cloud as they flow,
As altars in nature's own temple they rise
High 'round the priestess they bear to the skies---
The Snow Angel of Shavano.

LOWING, snow-fired on the breast of night
The figure of silver and misty light
Is only borrowed from Heaven above
As an emblem of peace, a vision of love;
That men may strengthen their faith to see
The glimpse of eternal beauty in thee---
O Angel of Shavano.

THE rapture of the winging dawn
Has brightened the eastern sky and drawn
A silent music through the list'ning hills;
As fresh with glowing life is born
Th' eternal melody of the morn
'Round the Angel of Shavano.

SALIDA TO HAVE FLOWER SHOW

"America, the Beautiful" is to be more than a song, it is to be a reality, if the plans of the Garden Clubs, Federated Clubs and other civic-minded organizations throughout the country are successful. In Maine the State Federation of Women's Clubs is planting the highways in the State. In California all highways are being planted. Through the middle Western States the Garden Clubs are active in promoting civic improvement by means of Yard Contests and Flower Shows.

In keeping with this spirit which is rapidly spreading throughout our Country, the Tuesday Evening Club, of Salida, a member of the General Federation, will sponsor a Flower Show and Beautiful Yard Contest. The City Administration and all civic organizations are interested in this undertaking. The Flower Show will probably be held in August and every flower lover in the community will have an opportunity to display his own choice blossoms and view the horticultural efforts of his neighbor. One object of the show will be to create a friendly competition among flower lovers. Modern landscaping will be stressed in the yard contest. The size of the yard or the showiness of the house will not count in the judging but rather the arrangement of the shrubbery, flowers and lawn and their relationship to the house. Porch and window boxes will also receive attention.

A planted yard for every home, flowers in every yard, that is our goal. Every civic-minded person in Salida should start talking "better yards, more flowers." We have an ideal community in a beautiful setting and by our own efforts we may add to this beauty. A well planted yard adds materially to the value of ones property. Tourists and visitors are always favorably impressed with a clean city with attractive yards.

Most magazines now have articles each month devoted to the planting of home grounds, and the care of flowers. Many of these magazines are in the Public Library ready for your use.

Perhaps the best part of this program is that it will cost nothing but a little seed and work. The following committee from the Tuesday Evening Club will be in charge of this undertaking.

Please bear in mind that this is not a Tuesday Evening Club affair. It is a community project in which every citizen should be interested. There will be no entry charges in either the yard contest or flower show. Everything will be entirely free. Start planning now so you can enter your flowers and your yard in the contests.

The committee wishes to emphasize that every one in Salida is eligible to compete for the awards by entering his yard in the contest and by exhibiting his flowers.

Flower Show Greatly Appreciated By Local People

Salida's first Annual Community Flower Show has been pronounced a complete success, and we wish to take this means of extending our thanks to the Elks, for the use of the Elks' Home; Mr. C. Dinkins, for his courtesy and help; the citizens of the community, for their co-operation; those who appeared on the program; the City administration, for its interest and co-operation; the Salida business houses, for their help; the judges of both the Flower Show and Yards; the Boy Scouts for their wonderful help; and to all others, who by their interest and co-operation helped to make this civic project a success.

We wish to especially thank the newspapers for the space in their papers which they donated for our news articles.

Just Among Ourselves

THE FLOWER SHOW

Some day Salida will decide to move the Angel of Shavano to another mountain, and Look Out! It will be done. The Salida spirit can move mountains.

Last spring Mrs. E. W. Mays suggested at a meeting of the Tuesday Evening Club that a flower show be held in Salida. Mrs. S. K. Murdock, president of the club, sponsored the idea and the club membership cooperated with fine spirit. It was to be a good show of the flowers that can be grown in Salida. A start had to be made, and while they thought, the first show might not be so wonderful, and might not arouse general interest, the idea would be permanent and would grow year by year.

The Flower Show was held Thursday afternoon and Thursday evening at the Elks Home. And what a show! More than 3,500 people came during the day, some of them several times, to witness a display of flowers such as never had been dreamed of. Salida dropped all other interests Thursday to attend the show. It was the only interesting topic of conversation. The Tuesday Evening club had made a tremendous success of it.

Mrs. Mays, as chairman of the affair, directed the effort and gave much of her time to it for many months but she had the cooperation of many willing assistants, and they had reason to be proud of the results. The unexpected number of entrants, the many varieties of flowers and their beauty and sturdiness, demonstrated not only that Salida people love flower culture but that Salida can look forward to the day when this valley will be devoted to the culture of commercial flower gardens.

It was a cosmopolitan show. The humbler residents and the foreign elements were at home with the social notables. Their pet flowers were all aristocrats. Children vied with their elders in producing beautiful specimens.

In addition to the Flower Show there was a yard garden contest which was entered into eagerly. Many of these pretty gardens are in back yards. The judges were amazed when they visited the places last week and noted the wonderful improvement since last spring.

First Annual Flower Show Huge Success

The First Annual Flower Show held last Thursday at the Elks Home, under the auspices of the Tuesday Evening club, with its hundreds of offerings of beautiful and rare flowers, would have been beautiful in itself, but the committees in charge overlooked no detail that would make it a perfect success. The program held in the afternoon was well attended and merited the high praise given it.

Mayor Ferno's address and the songs, readings, musical selections, dancing, vocal duets and quartets were enjoyed. There was another program during the evening, similar in character.

Another feature of the show was the complimentary tea. Mrs. Gorman was the chairman and she was ably assisted by Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Langfield. Tea was served by the Misses Iva Mae Beck, Kathryn Darby and Maryellen Patano. Ann and Jane Travers were the pages. Elaine and Elinor Matthews passed sugar and lemon.

Salida's first annual community Flower Show has been pronounced a complete success, and we wish to take this means of extending our thanks.

To the Elks for the use of the Elks home.

To Mr. C. Dinkins for his courtesy and help.

To the citizens of the community for their co-operation.

To those who appeared on the program.

To the city administration for its interest and co-operation.

To the Salida business houses for their help.

To the judges of both the Flower Show and the Yards.

To the Boy Scouts for their wonderful help.

To all others, who by their interest and co-operation helped to make this civic project a success.

We wish to especially thank the newspapers for the space in their papers which they donated for our news articles.

Annual Flower Show Big Success; Crowd Grets Garden Beauties

The second annual community flower show held yesterday at the Elks' home was a decided success. While there were not quite as many entries as the year before, having the entries in classes and following a few rules as to number in a display helped to make a more impressive showing and also made it much easier for the judges. The heavy rain of the evening before ruined many flowers planned for the show.

There were many special displays, which were not entered for competition. The display of native cactus arranged by Mrs. George Moore from her collection was an "eyeopener" to most people in Salida. The cacti were planted in sand with rocks for background which made the display very realistic. Markers identified the vicinity in which the cacti were found; namely, Cottonwood, Mt. Shavano, Brown's Canon, Redlands, Wellsville and Canon City. One of the judges who recently visited a cactus show in California saw nothing in the show to compare with this display.

While this was the most elaborate cactus display, there were many others, mostly in individual containers, which were very interesting. We were sorry not to have the names of the cacti and those who entered them. A few entries which were labeled were a Nile cactus, Snake plant, Utah. Two entries by Mrs. Manger of the El Patio cafe were unusual and very interesting. Other displays noted were Japanese dish gardens, one of which was entered by Mrs. H. E. Smith also a tropical garden. This garden is made in a glass bowl and is kept covered.

Two beautiful American flags were on display. The one entered by Mrs. G. H. Van Alostine was made of cosmos and bachelor buttons, and the other made by Misses Helen Hanks and Louis Hay and entered as a Tuesday Evening club display was made of sweet peas and bachelor buttons. The patriotic motif was used by two prize winners in the organization display. A basket of golden glow and hare bells was so very artistic that it received a blue ribbon. These flowers are so common here that we are inclined to think of them as weeds. The American Legion Auxiliary entered the basket. Irish shamrock belonging to Mrs. Frank Gloyd were greatly admired.

Mr. Hodding of the Salida Greenhouse furnished a very attractive display. A border of potted plants, Fuchsia, Cyclamen, Begonia and Cannas, made the setting for the five varieties of roses. These were labeled as "Rapture or Butterfly, Ophelia, Templar, Premier, and Scott Key.

Many yards in Salida have roses in them and they are hardy here if given a little protection. Mrs. N. J. Garrelts planted an Atol-de France on May 8. It has bloomed all summer and had 48 buds and blooms at one time. It is now in its second blooming. It is planted on the south side of a high board fence. Mrs. Charles Rush has a white American Beauty in her yard which is a beauty. The bush froze down this last winter, but one stalk came up from the root. This stalk had 20 buds at one time on it.

The winners in the yard contests, Senior and Junior, were announced by Mrs. C. L. Shively. In the Senior contest, T. T. Morris received special mention as having a superior yard.

FLOWER SHOW

Plans are going forward rapidly for the second annual community flower show which will be held in about two weeks.

Mrs. Wm. N. Baird, assisted by Mrs. C. L. Shively and Mrs. H. R. Hay, will have rules for entries ready in a few days. These rules are to aid in arrangement of your entries and will tell how many blossoms to place in an entry. This will make it much easier for the judges.

Space will be available at the flower show for special displays. A rose display is planned to acquaint the people with the varieties which are hardy for this climate. Everyone having roses in bloom is urged to bring at least one blossom from each variety and have the variety marked. Roses can be grown successfully in Salida if given the proper winter protection.

Several cactus enthusiasts are planning displays. Mrs. George Moore has a very fine collection which she plans to have at the show. This collection includes both native plants and those which have come from Arizona and California. Mrs. Mauger of the El Patio Cafe expects to display her cactus at the show. She has plants from all over the country.

Several of the campfire girls are working to have their collection of wild flowers ready for the show. These flowers are pressed in waxed paper and mounted on heavy paper. The name of the flower and location where found is written on the paper. Mrs. Walter Steele is directing the girls in this work.

Anyone having an odd plant or unusual flower is urged to arrange to have it in the special displays. There is no cost to entering the special displays, just notify the hall committee on the amount of space wanted so that ample room will be allowed for your display. This committee includes: Mesdames Joe Langfield, Harry Boyd, Harry Croser, Harry Waggoner, L. Sparks and J. Ramey.

The Junior entries will be governed by the same rules which apply to the Adult entries. Junior entries will be judged separately and space will be set aside for the Junior display.

Organization displays will be placed together and judged separately from the other flower entries. The committee in charge of these displays are Mesdames D. C. Kern, L. Berndt, Edith Gorman, R. L. Dickinson and F. J. Doveton.

Those who have dish gardens are urged to bring them to the show. These little gardens are so interesting and pretty that every home should have one.

The date and place for the Show will be announced next week. Please remember that this is a community show. The Tuesday Evening Club is the sponsor. The show is entirely free, no charge on entries and no admission charge.

Tuesday Evening Club Meets

The regular meeting of the Home and Current Events Department of the Tuesday Evening Club was held April 19, with twenty members and two guests present.

Mrs. Lela Duncan presided over the short business meeting. After the salute to the flag, one verse of "America, the Beautiful" was sung with Mrs. Margaret Sneddon accompanist.

MRS. COOK, LIBRARIAN, RESIGNS AFTER TWENTY YEARS SERVICE

She Leaves Soon For California To Take Rest; Wyoming Woman Is Her Successor

Mrs. H. I. Cook librarian of the Salida Public Library surprised her friends Wednesday morning when she announced that she had resigned her position and she will spend several months in travel. She handed in her resignation in December but the board did not make it public until a competent successor could be obtained. Mrs. Monte Fesenbeck of Powell Wyo. a trained librarian, was appointed Tuesday night to succeed Mrs. Cook.

The Salida Public Library is rated by librarians as one of the best in the United States for a city of this size. It has had a unique history. It was organized twenty years ago by the Tuesday Evening club, and it consisted first of a shelf of 100 books. Mrs. Cook became custodian of the books and after a time they were placed in city hall. The club gave concerts and entertainments to raise funds for books and for a building. After many years of hard work the fund had grown to such extent that the Carnegie Library fund was available and the pretty building at Fourth and E streets was erected in 1909. Mrs. Gravett was the first librarian but on Jan 1, 1911. Mrs. Cook was appointed and she remained twelve years to the day.

The library contained only 1,000 volumes when it was moved to its own building but it now contains 8,000 volumes. It has the largest magazine department of any library in the state outside of Denver or Pueblo.

Mrs. Cook intends to spend the winter in California and then her plans are undecided.

Mrs. Fesenbeck comes to Salida highly recommended.

Music and Art Meeting Enjoys Fine Program

The Literature, Music and Art Department of The Tuesday Evening Club met in Assembly Hall Tuesday evening, November 25.

The program for the first part of the evening consisted of musical numbers in charge of the Misses Catherine Panton, Leah Sandusky and Vallie Hallock. Miss Panton read a paper, "A Plea for the Chorus," by Wilson A. Burrows. The following choruses were sung by the Misses Sandusky, Hallock Hart, Schoofield, Phippeny, Panton and Mesdames Hay and Tanton, Mrs. F. C. Woody at the piano. They were, "The Kerry Dance," by Molloy-Lynes, "Sweetheart My Song Is Come," by Sims-Lynes, "Spring Song," by Henry Houseley, "When Twilight Weaves," by Beethoven Branscombe.

The musical numbers were greatly enjoyed by the large number of club members and their friends.

The second part of the program was in charge of Mrs. Warren Hood, Mrs. W. C. Heckman and Mrs. A. E. Rice, who presented a study of the play, "Behind a Watteau Picture." A fantasy in verse in one act, by Robert E. Rogers. An admirably imagined and gracefully written play of fancy, appealing to the highest taste and embodying every desirable quality of good drama,—literary, dramatic, pictorial and even musical.

The musical accompaniment during the whole play was very cleverly arranged and played by Mrs. Rice. Her interpretation of the different scenes enacted, added much of the effectiveness of the fantasy.

We would not fail to mention the assistance of Mr. Hood, Mr. Rice and Mr. Heckman in arranging the stage.

At the close of the program the committee and their husbands delightfully entertained the cast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rice, Music, conversation and delicious refreshments formed the diversion for the evening.

SALIDA, TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 10, 1929

Salida Greets C.F.W.C.

Salida today welcomes the convention of the Colorado Federation of Women's clubs, which will meet here four days. Although Salida has not acquired the habit of seeking conventions, it could easily be a favorite. It has the climate, scenery and attractions that please a convention crowd and it is centrally located with railroad and highway facilities.

Salida welcomes this convention and is doing its best to make the delegates feel at home. The businessmen have co-operated with the women in making the arrangements, and everyone has shown a willingness to be of service.

Salida has much to offer the visitors and they will be here long enough to see many of the interesting sights.

Salida is a city of 5,500 population with good schools that rank with the best in the state. It has substantially built churches in charge of able pastors. It has well kept homes and lawns. It has a pure water supply from mountain springs. This water is of an even temperature the year round. There are no icewater coolers in Salida except in the restaurants.

Salida has a delightful winter climate as well as summer climate. The city is sheltered by the mountains so that we have only a few snowstorms. Salida is the hub of the grandest scenery in all Colorado. Monarch Pass is now famous throughout the world. A half day trip in a car will take you to wonderful scenic spots. The great San Luis Valley is just across the range, and is reached by way of Poncha Pass. Here you obtain a beautiful view of the Sangre De Cristo mountain range, and the wonderful level valley itself, with its artesian wells, its immense farms, its duck lakes, its sand dunes, and its marvelous sunsets.

A trip over Monarch Pass is worth while in itself and it leads you into the famed Gunnison valley.

Another trip takes you to Buena Vista and Leadville over a scenic highway.

Another trip takes you to Canon City and the Royal Gorge.

The railroad trip to Gunnison is wonderful. You cross Marshall Pass, the highest railroad mountain pass in Colorado. You see the beautiful Black Canon, the Cathedral Spires, the Curecanti Needle, and many other scenic marvels of that wonderful region.

There are five hot springs resorts near Salida where swimming can be enjoyed the year round.

Salida has the biggest privately owned trout farm in the world. It is one of the sights of Colorado.

Salida's lettuce is in demand everywhere. It is the crisp Iceberg brand of lettuce and it grows here to perfection although the crop this year was damaged by continued rain. The late crop is of first class quality.

Salida is also the center of a cattle, grain and sheep country.

Salida is the Western center of the monumental Granite industry. Monuments are sent from here to all parts of the East and West.

Salida has a big tie treating plant where railroad ties and telephone poles are treated by a creosoting process.

Salida is the trading center for the mines of Bonanza, Orient and other camps. It is the transfer point from the narrow gauge to the broad gauge railroads.

Salida has a big railroad payroll.

Salida has good hotels, a rest room for tourists, a camping ground, several parks, a golf course and tennis courts.

Trout fishing at Salida is excellent. They catch big ones here. There are dozens of gulches, and canons and natural parks where camping is delightful.

We hope you can visit some of these places of interest, and when you are thinking of a vacation in winter or in summer keep Salida in mind.

FIRST SOCIAL EVENT OF C. F. W. C. TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The first social event of the C. F. W. C. convention will be the reception, which will be held after the formal opening tonight. The reception will be held in the Assembly hall and all visiting and local club women are invited.

Colorado Federation Meeting Gets Under Way With Plans Well Made

The 35th annual convention of the Colorado Federation of Women's clubs opened in Salida, Tuesday evening, September 11.

The city of Salida and her business men honored the visiting women by decorating in the federation colors, purple and white. The First Methodist Episcopal church, convention headquarters, was artistically decorated with purple and white asters and ferns.

Mayor C. F. Proudfoot, in behalf of the city welcomed the visitors to Salida. Mrs. F. E. Park in a very gracious and charming manner, gave the welcome from the hostess club, the Tuesday Evening Club of Salida. E. W. Mays welcomed the visitors in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, and the Rev. Philip Nelson delivered the invocation. The response to the welcome and the president's message by Mrs. H. G. Bogert, state president, was received with enthusiasm.

The principal address of the evening was by Mrs. Dorothy Stott Shaw of Colorado Springs. Her subject, "I Hear America Singing," was undoubtedly the most charming talk heard in Salida for some time. The rhythm of color and the Great American Symphony to come from the new, ever changing scenery of Colorado were emphasized. Music was furnished by the hostess club under the direction of Mrs. F. C. Woody. The reception after the meeting was a brilliant affair and brought to a happy close the first day of the convention.

Three seminars were conducted Wednesday morning and reports of the officers followed. At the luncheon, Mrs. M. S. King, Department of American Home, presided. Speakers included Mrs. Mary Sherman on "The American Home As a Background for Children." A few thoughts brought out: "Children of this generation are no worse than in previous generations;" "Training of children entirely up to parents" and "A conscience is spiritual awareness." Mrs. Scott Campbell of Boulder spoke on "International Relations" and Superintendent of Schools C. E. Tanton of Salida, spoke on "Fitting the Curriculum to the Child."

Among the speakers at the afternoon session were Mrs. George F. Roberts, Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford, Miss Amy Greenbaum of the Jewish Women's Council of Denver, Mrs. Pearl Bartels, of Ft. Collins, a sister-in-law of Mrs. C. P. Laverty of Salida.

Mrs. Millie Velhagen reported on the General Federation meeting and Mrs. C. H. Morlan spoke of plans for the Biennial in Colorado in 1930.

Wednesday evening was given over to the celebration of the silver anniversary of the scholarship loan fund. It was during the administration of Mrs. T. M. Harding as president of the State Federation that she conceived the idea and started the movement which has assisted in the education of 572 girls with loans of $113,377.00. Mrs. Harding has retained the chairmanship of the committee controlling this work during all of these years and her skillful administration and untiring efforts have brought an overwhelming success little dreamed of in the beginning. All of the past presidents attending the convention paid tribute to Mrs. Harding and her achievement.

A pageant "The Quest for Light," written by Mrs. L. A. Miller and dedicated to Mrs. Harding, was presented in a very effective manner by a group of Salida girls under the direction of Mrs. Earl Rorer. At the close of the Pageant Mrs. Harding was presented with a silver gift in the form of approximately $2,000 for her fund, which was contributed by various clubs, personal friends and girls who had received help through the scholarship fund.

The prize winning play, "Sangre de Cristo," was written by Mrs. Tessie Richardson of Alamosa, and was read by the author during the evening.

An address, "How To Enjoy Pictures" was given by Helen Harvey, formerly with the Art Institute in Detroit and now with the Denver Art Museum.

At 10:20 Mrs. John F. Sippel, general federation president arrived at convention headquarters. This was a big moment of the convention. Views of Colorado gardens, in colors, was an interesting part of the program. The musical numbers for the evening were delightful. Too much cannot be said of the sweet graciousness of the state president, Mrs. H. G. Bogert. She has endeared herself anew to old friends and those who are knowing her for the first time are singing her praises, for to know her is to love her. Her many admirers have paid tribute to her with beautiful flowers.

Colo. Federation of Women's Clubs Hold Convention in Salida To-day

The 8th annual meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs of the South Central District, was held today, May 17th, at the Elks Home with 26 delegates and 130 visitors present.

The hall was beautifully decorated in potted ferns and cut flowers. The meeting was called to order at 10:00 o'clock this morning by the president, Mrs. Grant Newmyer. The Tuesday Evening Club of Salida was the hostess club and in the absence of Mrs. Murdock, the newly elected president Mrs. Marion Travers, gave an address of welcome, which was responded to by Past State President Mrs. A. J. Weiss of Del Norte.

The State President, Mrs. Valentine B. Fischer was introduced by Mrs. Newmyer. Mrs. Newmyer gave a splendid report on her year's work with the 21 clubs in the district. She reported on increase in membership and also in attendance. Every club in the district gave a Washington Bicentennial program and most of them have planted trees.

Mrs. R. E. Sellers, chairman of American citizenship urged the club members to use their vote next fall and to urge others to vote and to study and understand the amendments which will appear on the ballot.

Other reports of district chairmen were given on the wonderful work being accomplished by club women including community service, Indian programs, Junior membership and legislature.

Mrs. L. A. Barrett gave a piano solo "Flower Song" by Lange, which added to the pleasure of the assembly.

The Fortnightly Club of Buena Vista extended an invitation to the district to meet with them next year. The invitation was accepted.

Reports of each club in the district showed that each was doing a commendable work in its community and in club work.

The afternoon program included a piano solo "To Spring" by Greeg, by Mrs. R. E. Gondon; election of officers; an address "Adult Education" by Mrs. Grant Babcock; reading "Washington" by Mrs. Jay Ramey; General Federation Message by Mrs. H. G. Bogert and Mrs. W. G. Mrs. R. E. Sellers, vice president of the South Central District in a gracious manner gave the toast "Our District" Mrs. L. D. Mosgrove in a toast "Tuesday Evening Club 1894-1932" reviewed the history of the Tuesday Evening Club. Mrs. Mosgrove is a charter member of the club and her talk was most interesting. She told how the club, when first organized set up a public library and the members took turns in acting as librarian, keeping open three afternoons a week. The city library was started in this way through the effort of this group of women. The State President, Mrs. Valentine B. Fisher talked on "Unity in Diversity—Your State Federation." She stressed the work that club women were doing all over the world.

"During these days of depression work of club women is most vital and the women are responding in a noble manner. Club women are world conquerors, nothing they cannot do from driving a tractor to having twins; Those who cannot grasp new ideas have no place in club work; because it has never been done is no reason why it should be done now. Understanding is the most important thing of all and understanding individual is not easily misunderstood. Do well what is your speciality. A thing half done has no place in club work; club work is progressive. In the scholarship fund the Colorado Federation has a turnover of $136,000 the largest amount in the General Federation of Women's Clubs. A "Safety Department" has been added to the activities of the C. F. W. C. A history of Colorado is being prepared under the direction of Mrs. Millicent Velhagen, a past president and General Federation director of Colorado. All club women are urged to collect authentic history pertaining to their own district. All club women are urged to buy "Columbine Brooms" made by the blind. Linen crash towels made by blind women can be purchased at reasonable prices."

Mrs. Fisher's talk was full of wit and her gracious manner in speaking gave her facts forcefully driven home to the club women present a nice sugar coating which was most pleasant.

THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY TUESDAY EVENING CLUB IS FITTINGLY OBSERVED

The thirtieth anniversary of the Tuesday Evening Club was celebrated Saturday, October 4th, by the members and friends in a manner befitting such a notable occasion.

Among the club guests were: Mrs. H. M. Munroe, of Denver, the newly elected president of the State Federation, Mrs. Thos. McHarg, the retiring president, Mrs. Jacobson, past president and chairman finance committee, Mrs. T. M. Harding, chairman scholarship committee, and a past president, Mrs. Pettee, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bogart, recording secretary, Mrs. Raynor, auditor, Mrs. Kirby, parliamentarian, Mrs. Land, Mrs. Tripp, Mrs. Robinson and last but not least, Ellis Meredith of Washington, D. C., noted writer.

All of the state officers expressed greatest pride in the Tuesday Evening Club for the many notable things which they have accomplished for the benefit of the community. Mrs. Harding, of Canon City, addressing the club, recalled her visit to the club. It was when she was president of the State Federation, and while the club was holding its meeting in the room over the fire department, in City Hall. She spoke of the inspiration which she received from the Club because of its wonderful work in already having started its library even at this early day.

The following excellent and delightful musical numbers were given during the evening under the direction of Mrs. F. C. Woody.

(1) Chorus from the "Rose Maiden," T. E. C. Chorus.

(2) Duets by Mrs. Woody and Miss Panton: "Spanish Dance," Opus 12, from Moszkraska; "Night-by-the-Sea," McDonald.

(3) Solos by Miss Phippeny: "Autumn," and "When Love is Done."

(4) Quartet: "Recessional" and "The Rosary;" Miss Sandusky, Miss Panton, Miss Phippeny, Mrs. Tanton.

Mayor Buchanan, in a brief address, recalled the time when, as Mayor of Salida, received as a gift, the library from the Tuesday Evening Club. We are all proud of our library, both of the building and the splendid assortment of books. Mr. Buchanan read statistics showing the cost of the upkeep of libraries in other cities comparable with Salida to be from two to three times as great as that of our library. This is due not to inferiority of our library, but because of the great assistance rendered by the Tuesday Evening Club, which furnishes all of the reference books, most of the magazines and by the rental of their club rooms, helps to defray other expenses. Such a library is a wonderful asset to any city and the Club is justly proud of this lasting monument to their service to their community.

Another wonderful work which the Club has been doing for years is lending money without interest to girls who wish to go away to institutions of higher learning. This is known as the T. E. C. Scholarship Fund. During the past twelve years, ten of our Salida girls have been assisted thru this fund of the Tuesday Evening Club to go away and fit themselves to be teachers.

All thru these thirty years, the Club has diligently studied music, art, literature, current events and home economics, and while it was still a young club, gave many excellent plays, of which the following are types: "Macbeth," in pantomime, "Living Pictures from Shakespeare," "A Comedy of Errors," "Builders of the Nation."

The Club now has a membership of about 120 of the best and brightest women of Salida, women of the highest ideals, who have proven by years of service, their devotion to all that will advance and help their community.

Miss Helen Mosgrove was the recipient of many congratulations and compliments from the state officers, for they brought the good news that Miss Mosgrove had won the second prize for the best poem. This is the second time that Miss Mosgrove has brought honor to her home town and to The Tuesday Evening Club. This poem is entitled "The Angel of Shavano." Three years ago it will be remembered that Miss Mosgrove won the first prize offered by the State Federation for the best poem. This was a sonnet entitled "Armistice."

Miss Mosgrove read her latest poem which was enthusiastically received.

The Club rooms were decorated with the club colors, crimson and white, and beautiful bouquets of gift of Mrs. Sarah Dismar, a charter member, who not being able to be present, reminded the club of her loyalty by this beautiful gift. A telegram of congratulations and good wishes was received from Mrs. Mary C. Ridgway, the Club's first presidents, and Mrs. Mary A. Sisson, a past-president, sent in a resume of the Club's work which was read by Mrs. Mosgrove.

After the program, the large birthday cake with thirty lighted candles, was brought in. The candles were blown out and many good wishes were made. Ice cream and cake were served during the social hour which followed.

On Saturday, the guests were given an auto trip to Buena Vista for lunch and afterwards to Hortense Hot Springs.

This was considered a great treat by the ladies, as they were delighted with the magnificent scenery.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB
CELEBRATES FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY TUESDAY

An enjoyable and informal meeting of the Tuesday Evening Club was held on Tuesday evening in the assembly hall with Mrs. Travers presiding, when the club celebrated the fortieth anniversary of its organization. The three Charter members who live in Salida were guests of honor and gave very interesting talks on the history of the club. Mrs. Mosgrove spoke of the organization and achievements of the club; Mrs. Martha Jones, on the establishing of the Library, and Mrs. Rech, on the social life of the club. Each speaker told many incidents, both serious and humorous, which completely held the interest of the audience.

Mrs. Murdock read letters of greetings from other Charter members; Mrs. Mary Ridgway who resides in Chicago; Mrs. Mary Sisson of San Diego; and Mrs. Sarah Disman of Kansas City and also presented a check which Mrs. Disman sent for the purchase of a gift. The small Chorus of the club sang two numbers, "Woodland Symphony" arranged from the "Fifth Symphony" by Beethoven, and "O, Peaceful Night" by German. Community singing of old familiar songs was enjoyed and also an informal reminiscence of events connected with the life of the club. Mrs. Condon accompanied for the Chorus and the community singing. Birthday pennies were presented by the members—a penny for each year of membership in the club.

After the program a social hour and lunch was enjoyed. Forty red candles were lighted on the lovely birthday cake, which was baked by Mrs. A. H. Church and adorned the serving table. Red and white carnations were used to decorate the room. Coffee and tea were poured by Mrs. Mosgrove and Mrs. Rech and the cake served by Mrs. Martha Jones. The committee in charge of the refreshments was Mrs. Laverty, Mrs. Church and Mrs. Cora Bovee and the program arranged by Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Murdock and Mrs. Twitchell.

There are so many things I'd like to rehearse with the Club at this 40th Anniversary - but it might take the best part of the evening to mention them - so I know it is the best policy to say - Here's my sincere greetings to the entire Club - and specially to this 40th Anniversary - Can it be possible that the T.E.C. has been in existence 40 years. How well I remember when Mrs. Carl Ridgway invited a number of us to her house one evening to "see about starting a Literary Club" I'm pretty sure that's the way the motions read and with what glee and interest we carried the motion "to start a Literary Club" and what zeal we kept it going after it was started. So - with this letter I must close with my heartiest congratulations for the 40 years the club has prospered

WASHINGTON BUILDING,

My dear Madam President:

The Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington had a glorious beginning on the 22nd of February, 1932. The tremendous Nation-wide response was an epoch-making event in the world's history and every indication points to still greater interest and participation as the Celebration progresses. Please bear in mind that celebrations are now being held and will continue to be held up to and including Thanksgiving Day.

We are well aware that the women's clubs are presenting splendid programs of participation in this Bicentennial Celebration and we want as complete a report of their activities as possible for the permanent records of the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission. To this end will you please answer the questions attached - even though you may already have sent us some of the information now requested.

In the event that you have not yet completed your plans to participate in the Celebration, a Special George Washington Program Clip Sheet is enclosed which outlines programs and other activities that will be helpful.

Do not hesitate to call upon us if we can be of further service.

Faithfully yours,

Mary Sherman

Flower Show Attracts Large Crowds; Beautiful Specimens Grown in Salida

The Third Annual Flower Show which was held at the Elks Club on Wednesday, was again a great success. This affair is sponsored by the Tuesday Evening Club, with the financial help given by the Chamber of Commerce.

While there were not so many flowers as in previous years, there were many beautiful specimens. The table of gladiolas especially attracted the attention of the visitors. Special mention should be made of the entries of Theodore Jacobs, who brought eleven beautiful and unusual colored gladiolos. The clever cactus garden belonging to Mrs. George Moore also caused many comments.

During the afternoon Mrs. L. E. Thompson entertained the visitors with pure and vocal selections and during the evening the following instrumental numbers with Miss Anna Sweeney in charge were presented: violin solos, Joe Cencel accompanied by Miss Sweeney; saxophone duets by Lorraine Szynskie and Drexel Moore also accompanied by Miss Sweeney and several piano selections by Miss Sweeney.

The committee wish to express their appreciation to the Elks for the use of the room; to all those who entered flowers; to those who entertained and to the judges who were very conscientious in the performance of their duties.

SALIDA FLOWER SHOW

The second annual flower show held under the auspices of the Tuesday Evening club, was an outstanding success. It proved again that this city can raise every variety of flower grown in this latitude. The colorings, texture and size of the flowers were all that could be asked. It was a feast for the lover of flowers. It was the bow-taking time for those who indulge in the sweet labor of nursing these beautiful things from seed to maturity.

People who take pleasure in studying the beauties of nature are less given to depression of spirits. Flowers speak a language all their own. The appeal this language makes was demonstrated in the large attendance at this show, and to the women who worked so hard to arrange the annual event, Salida owes a debt of gratitude.

The pressed wild flowers exhibited received a great deal of praise. Alice Jean Norris, 7-year-old daughter of Drew Norris had two books of wild flowers. These flowers had been pressed and pasted in the books, and many of them had a picture pasted, showing the variety as it looked growing. The flowers were named. The campfire girls, Katherine Darby and Mary Ellen Patano had very elaborate books. They used cellophane for coverings and also to hold and protect their blossoms. The books were indexed, each flower labeled and the location specified. Katherine Darby also had a book on pressed leaves which was unusual. Each leaf was identified and the characteristics of the tree given.

A flower display from 10,000 to 30,000 years old was entered by Jack Welch. This display consisted of ferns, flowers and leaves in the petrified state. A beautiful piece of petrified wood was entered by Mrs. C. P. Chandler.

A house with windows open to the breeze, borders of old-fashioned flowers, a beautiful lawn with a lily pool and aquarium and pansy bed,—this was the Tuesday Evening club display, representing an ideal garden. The committee worked very hard on this display and deserve a great deal of credit.

The committee wishes to take this opportunity to thank the following people who donated flowers for their exhibit: Mesdames D. D. O'Brien, Wm. Johnson, Darwin Jones, Pearl Gray, Luke Dailey, John Burgener, Guy Hall, Miss Mildred EnEarl, Dr. T. L. A. Shaffer and Mr. Hodding, and L. A. Barrett for printing the signs.

Fourth Annual Flower Show Draws Big Crowds Afternoon and Evening

Salida celebrated its fourth annual Flower Show Thursday under the auspices of the Tuesday Evening club. The display of flowers in the dining room of the Elks Home was a beautiful demonstration of the possibilities for flowers lovers in Salida and vicinity. Scores of varieties of flowers were on exhibition and they were as lovely specimens as can be found anywhere.

The display room was crowded with people all day and evening. A musical program was given during the evening. The flowers were displayed on long tables, each exhibit marked with the name of the flower and the number of the exhibitor. Late in the afternoon the judges had completed their work and the ribbons were awarded to the winners.

The Flower Show has grown in interest each year and the varieties are more numerous on each occasion.

Mrs. N. J. Garrelts, chairman of the civic committee of the Tuesday Evening club, was in charge of the arrangements, and she was assisted by a large committee. The Tuesday Evening club was congratulated by the many visitors to the show on the excellence of the exhibits and the thoroughness with which the arrangements were made. ## Date of Flower Show Is Set for Aug. 23

The fifth annual Flower show, sponsored by the Tuesday Evening club, will be held Friday, August 23rd, at the Elks Home.

Over 100 women are working on the affair and it is hoped to be one of the most successful shows ever held in Salida.

The members of the visiting committee of the show have tried to make a complete survey of the yards in Salida and in the districts around Salida, and it is hoped that no one has been slighted.

Cards have been sent out to the rural districts notifying the people of the show. The rules of the show will be printed again in the Friday issue of The Mail. It is especially asked that attention be paid to Rule No. 5 which states that entries must be in the hands of the committee not later than 9:30 o'clock the morning of the show.

Following are attractive yards which have been visited by the committee recently: Tom Saunders, W. C. Keim, Leon Lippard, W. A. Densmore, F. W. Brush, L. J. Taliaferro, Wm. Hyatt, P. J. McKenna, L. B. Stewart, Hazelhurst, Butler, C. D. Petty, Stewart Sexton, Mingus, EnEarl, Newcombe, Earl Cowan, vegetable garden. The High school grounds were found very attractive by the committee and it is expected that by the next flower show, the grounds of the grade schools although now very neat, will be as attractive.

SALIDA'S MANY ATTRACTIVE YARDS AND GARDENS DRAW ATTENTION OF T. E. COM.

The Committee for the Tuesday Evening Club Flower show report a great improvement in the lawns, flowers, shrubbery, trees and parking over last year.

We also have new curbing which has induced people to improve their lawns and parkings.

Among the several remodeled homes one outstanding home is that of F. W. Duncan on G. St. Other new buildings are The American Legion Hut on 10th and G Sts., Texaco Filling Station on 3rd and E. owned by Guy Hall, and the new post-office building which is being built.

The Hulse home should be mentioned because of the yard. It is surrounded by shrubbery and has many berry bushes of different kinds.

Other attractive homes around town are:

S. W. Sandusky, H. C. Williams, W. E. Patterson, Wallace Schoolfield, Jr., Dr. Larimer, Wm. Baird, Frank Rupp, Mrs. Ray Hanks, Guy Hess, Fred McNew, Ray Kloht, Ralph Ferraro, Mrs. Bonney, J. W. Parker, Mrs. Mary Carson, Mrs. Clavson, A. M. Fletcher, Ted Jacobs, Dr. Shaffer, Leslie Kerndt, Warren Hood, Dr. Parker, Walter Bates, Mr. Glasscock, Mrs. Thompson has a lovely vegetable garden, Louie Costello, Joseph Vigil, Dr. L. E. Thompson, R. K. Young, Frank Perkins, Dr. F. N. Cochems, Mrs. Renwick and Lester Vaughn. The Norris Terraces have also been improved. All the yards on Park Ave. are to be mentioned.

Annual Flower Show To Be Held in August

Salida's Fifth Annual Flower show is to be larger than ever, because it will embrace practically all of the Upper Arkansas Valley instead of Salida alone. This was decided yesterday at a meeting of the Flower Show committee at the home of Mrs. N. J. Garrelts. The show will be held about August 16 at the Elks Home.

Mrs. Garrelts is general chairman, Mrs. W. R. Hathaway is chairman of the publicity committee and Mrs. DeLacey Ramsey, Mrs. W. G. Benham and Mrs. G. H. Dreher are members of the publicity committee. Mrs. Edith Gorman is president of the Tuesday Evening club which is sponsor of the show.

A program will be given as usual and outside judges will be engaged. There will be no prizes awarded for yards but special mention of beautiful yards in Salida will be made to the public by the committee.

Inspection already has been made of the yards of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hulse, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Koster, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Dailey and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coombs, but there are many more beautiful yards to be visited. The Dalleys have 1500 gladioli in their yard and the Coombs have 300.

Mrs. Gorman said yesterday: "We have been told many times by lovers of beautiful yards that the annual flower shows have not only created a greater interest in flower culture and in yard beautification, but each year less and less damage is done to flowers, trees and shrubs by mischievous persons."

The flower show will be held throughout the day and evening of the day elected.

COMMUNITY FLOWER SHOW TO BE HELD AUGUST 16TH

The fifth annual Community Flower Show is to be held at the Elks Home Salida on August 16th. Everyone should participate to help make this a big success. The flowers are beautiful and the lawns are so pretty and green, then too cleaning of backyards and alleys help so much in improving the looks of our cities and towns.

A group of Salida ladies were in Buena Vista on Wednesday looking over some of the pretty yards. Buena Vista is a beautiful little summer resort with so many pretty winding driveways and log houses which look so inviting. Some of the yards which attracted attention were: Tabor, Patton, Wright, Lockwood, Weir, George Daniel, Newitt, Stewart Funeral Parlor, Aicher, Shelton, Mason, Ayers, Flomers, Wallace, Sheldahl, Humphreys Funeral Parlor, Clay, Grant, McLean, E. R. Daniel, Doyle, Pyle, Webb Cottage Camp, Faye, Niles, J. Frame, Myers, Gage, T. A. Frame, Braun, Baird, Manning, Tomkins, and the Community House. There were so many others, too numerous to mention.

Salida Yards Prettier Committee Reports

Salida is perking up, year by year. Better lawns, better back yards and improvements to homes have been noticeable during the last year, according to the Tuesday Evening club yard visiting committee, which is handling that feature of the Fourth Annual Flower Show. The committee is making a tour of the whole city and reporting progressively. Many of the pretty yards have not yet been visited.

The committee noted that since last year more lawns, flowers and shrubs have been installed. The new curbing encouraged many to park the curbing spaces.

Among the building improvements noted thus far by the committee were the remodeling of the Duncan home on G street, the new filling station erected by Guy Hall at Third and E streets, the American Legion Hut and the new postoffice building. Many Salida homes have been improved during the year.

The committee made a complimentary report on the yards of S. W. Sandusky, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Schoolfield, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Larimer, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rupp, Mrs. Ray Hanks, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hess.

The Ferraro, McNew, Kloht, Bonney, Parker, Carson, Closson, Fletcher, Shaffer, Jacobs, Kerndt, Hood, Bates, Glascock, Costello, Vigil, Newcomb, Severs, R. K. Young, Perkins, Cochems, Lester Vaughn, Norris, and Hulse yards also were noted as beautiful.

A lily pond and rock garden at the Franklin Perkins home were specially noted, also a vegetable garden at the Thompson home, Sixth and H streets, a rock and exceptional flower garden at the Lester Vaughn home, a variety of wild and domestic berry bushes and a rock garden at the Hulse home, and new flower designs and new lawn at the Warren Hood home.

The appearance of Park avenue throughout its entire length was highly commended as a neighborhood enterprise.

The committee will make other reports later.

Flower Show Visiting Committee Reports Many Improvements

The visiting committee of the Flower show to be held in August under the auspices of the Tuesday Evening club visited many of the yards in Salida yesterday were T. T. Morris, Don Valtifol than before and a great improvement was also noted in the care of the homes. To visit these yards is an inspiration to any home maker.

Among the beautiful yards visited yesterday were T. T. Morris, Don Valdez, D. C. Kern, William Lloyd, Dr. L. A. Ralston, Mrs. H. Preston, George Fitzsimmons, R. E. Law, W. C. Alexander, F. C. Paine, J. J. McKenna, H. E. Miller, L. B. Stewart, especial attention was called to the back yard at the Stewart home, H. R. Hay, Everett Anderson, T. A. Nevens, Charles Preusch, Leslie Lippard, Guy Hall, R. T. Hodgman and Dean Jones. An attractive arrangement of flowers at the H. R. Koster home and the beautiful ponds at the Dr. George Curfman home attracted the attention of the committee. A great improvement in the home was noted at the Jesse Newcomb home on H street.

Many Beautiful Yards Visited in Poncha

The chairman of the Publicity committee, Mrs. W. R. Hathaway, with Mrs. W. C. Heckman, Mrs. F. E. Park, and Mrs. Edith Gorman, motored to Poncha Springs Wednesday and spent the afternoon inspecting the yards and gardens of the homes there. The visit included part of the territory to be visited by the committee of the Tuesday Evening Club Flower show.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Pringle was especially noted for the beautiful trees and roses. An immense blue spruce and columbines also make the yard very attractive.

The committee visited next the Jackson hotel, conducted by Mrs. Smith. A well in the yard makes a picturesque scene together with the beautiful yard and garden. A lilac bush 15 feet high stands in the yard. Some of the flowers are a double wild pink rose, dahlias, moss roses and American Beauty roses. There is also a large cherry tree in the yard.

The home of Margaret Newby was noted as the McGruder cottage which was built fifty-five years ago. A porch surrounds the house and French windows in each room make a beautiful scene. There are two large fireplaces in the cottage. Pink and white perennial sweetpeas, moss roses and yellow columbines are some of the flowers that bring out the beauty of the old home. Crabapple and cherry trees and raspberry bushes, are also in the yard.

The E. G. Holman home was specially noticed for the beautiful lilies, poppies, both California and red, sweet peas and galardi.

Roses, Delphinium, Batchelor Button, Butter and Egg, Columbines and Talisman roses, make the yard at the Fullenwider home very attractive.

The J. A. Burnett home was visited and especially noted for its historical background. The home was a trading post in early years and Mr. Burnett's father built a cabin in the back in the year 1866 and the cabin still stands. The front gate of the yard is on a level with the top of Tenderfoot mountain. Ash trees have recently been set out in the yard and immense cottonwoods are in the back yard. Some of the beautiful flowers are the wild roses, Dorothy Perkins' rose, columbine, chrysanthemums and Shasta daisies. A beautiful American Beauty rose bush has fifty blossoms.

FLOWER SHOW--A few more yards are being sent in each day. We are glad to be reminded of the beautiful yard, flower and home improvements.

All one needs to do is drive up and down and on the cross streets to see the beautiful colors. One home on D Street, Charles Dinkins', has flowers all around the fence and backyard.

Betty Jean Miller, aged four years, thrilled the women in charge of the flower show, when she walked in with a daisy blossom in a small cream bottle and asked if it might be exhibited. It was. A label was put beside it and the story was told to each person visiting the show.

A musical program was given at 2:30 and at 7:30 o'clock. In the afternoon Mrs. Alice Bush played a piano solo, "Valse Parisienne;" Mrs. Kay Zinky sang three solos: "Will o' the Wisp," "Who Is Sylvia" and "Blue Danube." Miss Anna Sweeney was the accompanist at the piano.

D. J. Kramer furnished a phonograph for the show and Mr. Hodding furnished porch boxes for the entrance and a display of cut flowers for the exhibit.

The number and variety of flowers grown in the spring in Salida was a surprise to most of the visitors. The list included Japanese Honeysuckle, old-fashioned flowering currants, elderberry blossoms, wild geraniums, wild blue bell, wild iris, wild columbine, wild monk's hood, lilacs, spirea, gladioli, bleeding heart, lily of the valley, iris (royal purple), geraniums, tulips, jonquils, Iceland poppies, sweet rocket, myrtle vine, wood violets, sweet violets, primroses, buttercups, balloon flowers, pansies and domesticated columbine.

Tuesday Evening Club Will Hold Second Flower Show

The co-operation of everyone in the community is expected to make the flower show, which is sponsored again this year by the Tuesday Evening Club, a huge success. The flower show will be held on Aug. 10 in the dining room at the Elks Home.

The public is asked, and urged, to co-operate with the Tuesday Evening Club. Bring the flowers grown in your garden not only with the thought of securing a prize, but so that the many who are not fortunate enough to have a flower garden, may enjoy the beauty of them.

Last year over 2,000 attended the flower display, including many tourists who visited the state. No admission is charged to these affairs.

There will be no program as had been planned. This will give the visitors a chance to talk and to explain the different flowers.

The many pretty yards will not be mentioned as they were last year because of lack of space; however, the desired result has been obtained in creating interest in the yards and flowers making the city more beautiful.

It is hoped to have the street parkings taken care of soon, to have trees planted where others have been taken out, the Public Library needs trees and a parking lawn on one side, many trees overhang sidewalks and need trimming, all of these, if taken care of now, will add to the beauty of Salida.

Yards and parkings are often judged by the care of the home inside. It is a healthy sport to work in the yard and gratifying to know the work is being done for the community.

Many people have unusual suggestions to offer in arranging yards. Visit your neighbor's yard or someone in the city and learn how to make your own yard attractive.

All organizations are asked to exhibit a display of original arrangement. The club is asking that the flower show this year be a better exhibition of the flowers, yards and the beauty of Salida than ever before.

Mrs. A. G. Fish of Denver, director for Colorado of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who will bring a guest from Brooklyn, N. Y., will be one of the judges at the show. Mrs. George Stevenson of Tarkio, Mo., will be a judge.

For he who owns a garden
However small it be
Whose hands have planted in it
Flower, bush or tree;
He who watches patiently
The growth from nurtured sod
Who thrills at the new opened bloom—
Is very close to God.

(Chairman of the Civic Committee)

Judges Announced For Flower Show To Be Held Aug. 18

Mrs. M. J. Mayes, chairman of the state board of garden clubs in Colorado, will be one of the judges at the seventh annual flower show to be held in the Elks Home Thursday, Aug. 18, it was learned today. Mrs. Mayes will bring a second judge with her from her home in Glenwood Springs.

The Tuesday Evening Club committee in charge of the show have on file in the reference room at the public library a number of copies of the magazines, "Better Homes and Gardens," and "American Home" which are available to anyone who wishes to get pointers in regard to flower arrangements. A book "Principles of Flower Arrangement," also will be on reserve for general use.

Mrs. H. R. Koster has been named as chairman of the visitation part of the flower show this year and all those women who wish to act as hostesses in their own flower gardens during one afternoon of the week of the flower show are urged to get in touch with Mrs. Koster at once. Names of the "hostesses" will be printed in order that the public may then drop in to see these garden displays about the city. The club members hope to have a goodly number of home gardens listed by this week end.

While the flower show will be open from the hours of 2 till 8 on Thursday, it is possible that the visitation of home gardens will be set for Tuesday of the same week.

Rules of the flower show will be printed next week but cut flowers, bouquets suitable for sick rooms, for hall ways, and for a variety of other purposes are to be judged. Ribbons for first, second and third places will be offered in each of the divisions this year with the entries to be brought to the Elks Home before 11 o'clock on Aug. 18 in order to allow the judges plenty of time to render decisions before the show is open to the public.

Mrs. L. D. Hightower, who is general chairman of the Tuesday Evening Club, is being assisted by a number of club members in working out the details of the show which promises to be the best of its kind in this section of Colorado.

Containers in which cut flowers may be displayed will be furnished to those wishing them this year, it was decided yesterday.

It is thought that a number of contestants will avail themselves of the opportunity of reading the articles on possible flower arrangements in the books and magazines on reserve in the library and thus will be able to display to best advantage the beauty of their floral entries. It has been decided this year to permit the names of entrants to be placed on the flowers which will unquestionably add interest to the displays.

ANNUAL FLOWER SHOW DRAWS LARGE CROWD

The program was opened by Mrs. Barrett playing "Stars and Stripes Forever".

Mrs. Kern chose as her subject "The Youth and Manhood of George Washington" upon which she gave a splendid talk.

Following Mrs. Kern talk "The Star Spangled Banner" was played by Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Bode made a few brief remarks concerning the home of George Washington and that of his mother, passing pictures of each while Mrs. Thompson sang and played "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean".

With Mrs. Barrett playing soft strains from long long ago, Louise Curfman recited "The Minuet", and under the direction of Mrs. Heckman the Minuet was danced by the following ladies: Mesdames Alymer Reeves, G. V. Travers, Roy Connelly, Brown, G. H. Curfman, Jack Bittle, W. A. Crylie, and Harry Croser.

"Washington's Farewell to His Mother" was done in tableau by Mrs. Hathaway as the mother and Mrs. Bittle as George Washington, accompanying this pose Mrs. Heckman read the prayer of blessing.

Bittel, George Washington; Mrs. Guy V. Travers, Major Ross and Mrs. G. H. Curfman, Mr. Morris. The child upon whom all attention was centered, was little Elaine White, 3 year old daughter of Coach and Mrs. Harold White. Her ability for holding a pose for an indefinite time was most unusual.

"Martha and George Washington at Valley Forge," was done by Mrs. Croser and Mrs. Bittel.

The program closed with a tableaux, "The Tea Party," a colonial tea. This was posed by all participants in the afternoon's program.

Lovely refreshments were served by the Mesdames T. C. Bode, W. J. Lipard and W. C. Heckman.

A paisley shawl belonging to Mrs. Frank Gloyd was 100 years old. Mrs. Laverty showed an album quilt made in 1865.

Old jewelry on display belonged to Mrs. Crutcher, Mrs. Ralston, Mrs. Murdock and Mrs. Twitchell.

An unusually artistic sampler was displayed by Mrs. Theodore Bode which has come from her own immediate family, making it a genuine heirloom. It has been in the Swisher family since 1829. Mrs. Bode also had a cactus quilt which was very old and very attractive.

Musical numbers were played during the day by Mrs. L. A. Barrett.

The outstanding feature of the entire program was the paper which Mrs. L. D. Mosgrove compiled and read about the entire life of Washington, Mrs. Mosgrove having been at Mt. Vernon many times covering the grounds and also being through the old home, was well acquainted with the surroundings which made her talk doubly interesting.

She answered many questions which were asked by the members regarding Washington, and the writer of this article wishes to state that if there is anyone who wishes any information regarding George Washington just ask Mrs. Mosgrove.

FLOWER SHOW BIGGER AND BETTER THAN EVER.

breeze and gaillardias are in profusion.

Mrs. Coster at 430 West Second has the yard between her home and her wash house completely filled with growing things ranging from thrifty looking corn to unusually tall holly hocks. A splendid bed of clarkias are flanked by cosmos and dahlias. A healthy looking bed of petunias is much in evidence. Several of Mrs. Coster's choicest flowers have already bloomed for this season.

A rock bordered front walk flanked with pinks and nasturtiums and clarkia leads to the home of Alex Mazza at 441 Front. At the rear of the home stands a well kept vegetable garden with corn, cabbage, horse beans and beets and other green stuff in profusion. Along the house are sweet peas while at the corners of the house are grape vines.

Mrs. West's home at 202 Wood has a wealth of Shasta daisies and gorgeous array of dahlias and gaillardias as its outstanding display. Golden glow blossoms add a touch of yellow while black eyed Susans are farther back in the garden.

At the Holly home at 337 Oak on the highway the outstanding things are the zinnias that line the front fence with hollyhocks banked against the house. A splendid corn field is noticed at the rear of the home.

A very restful back yard at the home of Lester Vaughn at 321 Park centers around a "friendship" rock garden containing rocks from eight different states and from nearly every county in Colorado. A miniature pond with gold fish is a part of the rock garden. Beds of flowers in star shaped beds, with petunias, glads, and asters are flanked on either side of the yard by high fences which are covered with vines and foliage. A comfortable looking porch swing gives evidence of the fact that the garden is used as a restful nook.

The Etter home at 404 Hunt has a profusion of flowers behind the home with unusually fine dahlias being probably the outstanding features. The home being on a corner makes it possible for the garden to be seen to good advantage on either of two streets. Some unusually fine snap dragons were in evidence but were dwarfed by the beautiful dahlias.

Probably no garden in the county has more flowers than are to be found in the Haley yard at 336 Hunt. Mr. Haley is using four city lots for his profusion of blossoms which contain nearly every variety common to this section. Glads, petunias, marigolds, nasturtiums, daisies, snap dragons, and dozens of other flowering wonders add to this maze of color. Mr. Haley adds new varieties nearly every year and spends an enormous number of hours with his garden.

The Bement home at 209 Palmer has a large garden on a corner lot. Again a vegetable garden and beds of flowers vie with each other for attention. Beds of petunias, glads and pansies neatly arranged make a colorful corner.

At the Dailey home at 610 D, forms a sun shade in the center of the flower garden.

The Koster home at 904 G and the Powell home at 914 G have combined their yards into one of the prettiest spots in Salida. A wire fence that formerly divided the yards has given way to a row of hollyhocks. A large sunken garden contains a lily pond with fish and a trickling stream of water feeds into the pool. A bird bath made of petrified wood is a feature as are beds in the double yard of poppies, hollyhocks, nasturtiums, glads and sweet peas. A rock garden rises to the left of the sunken garden. The beds of flowers have all been neatly trimmed and some are edged with rocks. An open air fireplace near the alley is still another feature of this "double feature" flower garden.

The Gessert garden at 1003 I has a profusion of flowers with masses of color and a wealth of variety. The outstanding feature of the garden to your reviewer was the large number of tiger lilies just inside the yard. Farther back in the garden were beds after bed of other varieties of flowering plants.

Mrs. Gus Collins at 1031 E who although she has passed the three score and ten mark takes care of her entire garden herself has an unusually beautiful arbor to the rear of her well kept lawn. Rustic paths through her flower garden are lined with rocks and an old fashioned well has been placed in a conspicuous place in her garden. Dainty pansies, and other tiny flowers line the walks with zinnias, glads, asters and other larger flowers in the background. An unusually well kept lawn which is well shaded and cool makes the garden an unusually restful one.

The Dinkins home at 805 E combines vegetables and flowers in a good looking array. Unusually fine appearing golden bantam corn is flanked by beans, lettuce, cauliflower, squash and other vitamin producing green things. However, the flower part of the yard has not been neglected with glads, asters, zinnias and a curious pink and blue flowering plant the name of which Mrs. Dinkins didn't know.

The Ramey home at 1015 F has a rock outlined flower garden and a lily pond containing fish. A feature of the yard is a "strawberry barrel" on which are to be found rapidly ripening strawberries. The fence is lined with hollyhocks while a corner of the yard is turned over to a healthy looking vegetable garden. A good looking rock garden is a feature also.

The Morris flower garden at the corner of Tenth and F has long been a show place and once more this season contains a wealth of color. Large, double nasturtiums, black hollyhocks, pansies, ragged robins, glads and dozens of other varieties of blossoms in well ordered beds make this yard a joy to behold. A rock garden and a lily pond are features while an old rustic well made of pieces of petrified wood attracts a great deal of attention. Several evergreen trees have been placed in convenient places about the spacious yard and add their color. Myriads of sweet peas, scores of pansies and beds of glads vie with each other for color. Flower gardens to the front and side of the home garden with wild flowers, tall rack, and mountain foliage on A lily pond and gold fish are presided over by a sober-looking frog. Roses, glads, sweet peas and a wealth of other flowers in neat beds make the Perkins yard a thing of beauty. Poppies and pansies nod in beds at the side of the home while vines have nearly hidden the front of the brick home from the street.

The feature at the Garret home at 333 F is the vine covered front porch with the rock garden surrounding it and the entwining woodbine vines. Unusually attractive porch boxes are in evidence also.

And last but not least on the list of gardens on the roll prepared by the Tuesday Evening Club was the garden at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Larimer on the Mesa. Hardy looking geraniums surround the house while beautiful window boxes flank the windows. In the back yard a neat looking garden of corn, tomatoes, beans, beets, and lettuce vies with a beautiful bed of gladiolus, snap dragons, pansies, and golden glow for attention. The Larimer glads have been famous for some time in this community.

The interest that has been created in gardens by the visitation day Tuesday probably will lead to this part of the annual flower show becoming a permanent affair. Those who visited gardens this week were loud in the praise of the gardens they saw and many expressed themselves surprised at the beauty of spots which are oftentimes hidden from the street which can only be seen by visiting flower gardens.

The Tuesday evening Club wishes to thank those who opened their gardens for their friends to see on Tuesday afternoon and hopes that still more gardens will be on display next year.

The Tuesday Evening club held the last meeting of the year at Mrs. Unger's home. In the guessing game, Mrs. Henry Cook received first prize, a beautifully bound book. 1897

Rally Day. 1909

Tuesday evening was "Rally Day" of the Tuesday Evening Club. The meeting was held in the assembly room of the Library building, the new headquarters of the club. The members and their friends were out in full force, all being full of enthusiasm and interest over the coming year's work, which promises to be one of the most profitable and enjoyable in the history of the club. The new programs for the year were distributed and they are neatly gotten up in crimson and cream, the club colors, and the programs of all the departments are well prepared.

The program for the evening consisted of reports of the delegates, who attended the State Federation of Women's Clubs which was held in Leadville Sept. 7-10. After opening numbers on the piano by Mrs. Grace Chapman and Mrs. Werner, the president, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, gave a most excellent account of the meeting, speaking from the standpoint of the aims and progress of the Federation and what it is accomplishing. Mrs. J. W. Deen gave a report of the "Legislative Work," and the "Civil Service Reform." She clearly showed the necessity of the work and gave a list of the bills passed by the last legislature, which the committee had worked for. Mrs. M. A. Conine of Denver is the efficient chairman of this committee.

Mrs. Grace Chapman who represented the Music and Art department of the Tuesday Evening club, with two numbers on the piano on the programme at Leadville, gave a fine report of the musical work. The educational work was reported by Mrs. Gravett, who is the first vice-president of the Federation. She read the able report of the chairman on education, Mrs. Isabella Churchill, of Greeley, and gave excerpts from the address on "The School a Social Center Demonstrated," which was delivered by Milton C. Potter, superintendent of the Pueblo schools. All of the delegates were most enthusiastic over the entertainment and hospitality of the Leadville ladies. The social features of the federation were unusually well appointed and perfectly carried out. The large reception which was attended by over 200 people, the drive to the U. S. Fish Hatchery, the elegant luncheon at which 300 covers were laid. The marvel of it was that a small club of forty members did it all.

The B. P. O. E. of Leadville won the hearts and everlasting praise of the ladies of the Federation in the chivalrous way that they helped in the entertainment.

At the close of the program Mrs. G. Wheeler who is introducing the Electa Coffee, served coffee and cake to the ladies. The kitchen shower of the evening resulted in many useful articles for furnishing the kitchen.

Last General Meeting.

The general and closing meeting of the Tuesday Evening club was held last Tuesday evening in the assembly room of the city hall. A business session was held first and installation of the new officers. For some time it has been the object of the club to direct means of entertaining and furnishing some place of assembly for the young people of our city to spend their evenings. In view of this a written request was sent to the library board asking that the hours of the city library be changed so that instead of being open mornings as it is at present that it remain open evenings. Some action will no doubt be taken on this soon. A musical program then followed with instrumental numbers by Mesdames Chapman and Werner and Miss Nona Campbell; vocal numbers consisted of a duet by Mesdames Clover and Tanton and solo by Miss Rose Craig. Each number was especially good.

Mrs. Ridgway, the retiring vice-president, presented the new officers in a very pleasing manner to the president, Mrs. Lippard. The new officers are, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, president; Mrs. A. L. Twitchell, vice-president; Mrs. J. M. Duncan, recording secretary; Mrs. L. D. Mosgrove, corresponding secretary and Miss Anna Coombs, treasurer. Mrs. Lippard then addressed each officer individually, stating briefly the duty of each and the work to be accomplished. She closed with remarks to the entire club. This address was especially good and well received by all. Mrs. Alexander responded very graciously and appointed her standing committees. She closed her response with an appeal for support from all the members.

After a vote of thanks to the retiring officers the meeting adjourned, thus closing a very successful year of satisfactory work. Mrs. Lippard, in her modest but concise way, accomplished much for the club and retires with the love and hearty esteem of all the members. 1909

The general meeting of the Tuesday Evening Club was held at the assembly hall Tuesday evening, November thirtieth, the Music and Art Department having charge of the evening's entertainment, the following excellent program was given: Vocal solo, Miss Rose Craig; vocal solo, Mrs. Geo. Armstrong; paper—"My visit to Milan, Miss Davidson; instrumental duet, Mrs. VanArsdale and Mrs. Emerson; vocal solo, Mrs. C. E. Patrick; vocal solo, Miss Shomler. This department is accomplishing some very excellent work this year under the leadership of Mrs. Emerson, chairman, and Miss Weaver, musical director, the course of study being that adopted by the general federation of musical clubs of the United States, of which federation, this department is a member. 1909

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB CLOSES WORK OF YEAR

The Tuesday Evening club closed its year's work with a brilliant evening at Assembly hall Tuesday, May 29.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Shively. After reading of the minutes of the last general meeting, the committee on rental of Assembly hall reported a sum of $80 received during the year, which will be put into the library fund for the purchase of books for the Salida Public library.

The officers elect were then installed by Mrs. Sisson, a past president.

It has been a custom for the departments to take turns in furnishing the programs for the general meetings and it fell to the Art and Music department to furnish this program.

The work in all the departments this year has been of a very high character, and this program was a fitting finale to a most successful year's work. Mrs. Laws, Mrs. Sam Axford and Mrs. Bruderlin, the committee of arrangements, deserve great credit for the conception and management of the Living Pictures which so vividly portrayed the ideas in the following songs, with Mrs. Bruderlin and Mrs. Emerson as accompanists.

"Sweet and Low," an entrancing picture posed by Mrs. S. Phalen and baby and sung by Mrs. Phalen.

"Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," sung by Mrs. Axford and posed by Miss Marie Kelley, was a charming picture.

"From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," was a beautiful Indian picture, posed by Mrs. Maud Harrington and sung by Mrs. Axford.

"Mother Machree" was sung by a quartette composed of the Misses Rubin, Miss Gloyd and Mrs. S. S. Tanton. Mrs. Elizabeth Harrington made a most beautiful picture of a sweet, lovable mother, portraying in every pose that God was blessing and keeping Sweet Mother Machree.

"Ben Bolt" was sung by Miss Gloyd and Miss Katherine Bateman made a picture of "Sweet Alice" that will long be remembered by others than Ben Bolt.

"The Rosary" was posed and sung by Miss Rose Craig in a most charming manner, the voice, the beads, the cross, the words—all blended in the most exquisite harmony.

Mrs. Murdock made a beautiful Spanish maiden, while Miss Rubin sang "Juanita." Her Spanish costume was exceedingly pretty and appropriate.

TWO CLUB DEPARTMENTS ENJOY ENTERTAINMENT

The Literature, Music and Art department of the Tuesday Evening club entertained the Current Events department at a banquet in the Assembly hall on Tuesday evening at 6:30. Places were set for 75 members. The tables were decorated with red and white carnations, the club flower.

"America, the Beautiful," the National Federated clubs' song was sung by the group as they stood around the banquet table. The program was as follows:

"I Know Where a Garden Grows," John A. Densmore.

"Geography," Gaul. Sung by Catherine Pantan.

"My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Saint-Saens.

"Lindy Lou," Lily Strickland. Sung by Mrs. Beckley.

Mrs. Woody, accompanist.

Toasts:

The Past—Mrs. Lippard.

Today—Mrs. Crutcher.

The Future—Mrs. Woody.

Mrs. Mosgrove, department chairman, introduced the speakers in a most charming and humorous manner. Mrs. Lippard spoke of the hard work, the trials, the sacrifices of the early club members in their efforts to secure a library for Salida; then of the final triumph when the beautiful building was presented to the city. She mentioned the scholarship fund and various other activities of the club in the past years.

Mrs. Crutcher spoke of the splendid program put on by the club and discussed a peace committee which she should like to see become a part of Tuesday Evening club work.

Mrs. Woody predicted a beautiful new home for the club and great heights to be reached by some members who had received their training here.

Mrs. Spray was called upon for an impromptu speech and responded with a discussion of our peace program.

The following officers were installed by Miss Perry: President, Mrs. Benham; vice president, Mrs. Parkinson; recording secretary, Mrs. Elofson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Lewis; treasurer, Mrs. Laverty; chairman Current Events department Mrs. Duncan.

The touching beautiful ballads, with the appropriate pictures, were heartily appreciated by the audience that filled the assembly room and hall.

The Home and Current Events department served light refreshments while a social time was enjoyed.

Another very pleasing feature of the evening was the presence of Mrs. Spray and Mrs. Buell, two of the old members of the club, who have been absent from the town for a long time.

The work of the club will be resumed in the month of October.

Tuesday Evening Club Hold Banquet

Ninety-three members enjoyed the annual banquet of the Tuesday Evening Club at assembly hall, Wednesday evening. The room was prettily decorated with red and white, the club's colors. Potted plants adorned the long tables, and dainty place cards further promoted the color scheme.

With her usual diplomacy, and gracious manner, Mrs. Florence Benham acted as toastmistress. Submission both of topics and participants was matched by the speakers in wit and edification.

"America The Beautiful" was sung by the club, after which toasts suggested by the club's initials were given. T—standing for trustworthiness and interpreted by Mrs. Murdock; E—energy and enterprise, by Mrs. Lippard; and Mrs. Harrington explained that the letter C implied culture.

A chorus composed of Miss Hallock, Miss Sandusky, Miss Panton, Miss Lewis, Mrs. Hay, Miss Phippeny, Miss Smith and Mrs. Tanton rendered three beautiful numbers; two solos were sung by Miss Hart, while a trio composed of Miss Hallock, Miss Panton and Mrs. Tanton furnished three selections.

After the entertainment Mrs. Rose Ridgeway, with well chosen words, supervised the installation of officers. The retiring officials were properly commended for their fine loyalty, and tireless service during their regime—a period attended with exceptional success, and universal profit to everyone taking advantage of the remarkable activities for the year past. The club was congratulated by Mrs. Ridgeway in its selection of new officials.

The singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" sung by the club, concluded a most delightful occasion.

MRS. G. V. TRAVERS ELECTED HEAD OF TUES. EVENING CLUB

Mrs. Guy V. Travers was elected president of the Tuesday Evening club at a general meeting of the club held Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Edith Gorman was elected vice president; Mrs. Harold R. Koster, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Bittel, corresponding secretary and Mrs. G. M. Rajwson, treasurer.

Mrs. Sam K. Murdock is retiring president.

Election of officers was held during the general meeting of the two departments of the club, the Home and Current Events Department and the Music, Literature and Art Department.

Reports from all departments of the club were read. Plans for the district convention to be held in Salida May 17 were heard and plans for the flower show sponsored by the club were made.

Mr. Nevens was awarded the prize for being the best speller for the Commercial Club.

The Assembly then joined in community singing accompanied by Mrs. L. E. Thompson.

A Bird's-eye View Of My Two Year's Work. In Tuesday Evening Club.

During the past two years, the Club has held six General meetings, and the Board has held eighteen regular meetings and four Special meetings. I have been able to attend every one of these meetings. Think of that now!

In passing let us mention some of the important things that occurred during this time.-----Remember the first Banquet held in our club-rooms for some time. A pleasant affair, wasn't it?

We had our dream of a Music Department in our Public Library----- and since that time have seen that dream fulfilled.

That was the summer we had our floors re-finished and had to hold some of our meetings in the private homes.

We saw the Junior Federated Club Organized In Salida, and were so happy to act as sponcer for this. We are indeed proud of this splendid group of girls.

That year I attended the state Convention in Loveland and received great inspiration from seeing what other clubs were doing.

We gave one of our flags for use in The Public Library.

Our Flower Show that summer was most successful, and Mrs. Fish came from Denver to act as a judge.

Remember the pleasant Rally meeting that fall, with The Junior Federated Club as our guests. The Year Books were presented, after the usual amount of hard work and worry over having them edited correctly.

Have you forgotten how our old lights used to glare? And the great enjoyment we received from our new light fixtures. And such a time as we had getting locks and keys for all the cupboards, doors, etc.

In January we sent a five year subscription to The General Federated Club Woman.

Remember The Fine Art's Festival with all the splendid displays at our mid-winter meeting.

We appointed a member on the Camp Fire Board And have continued to have a member on that Board since that time.

Then in March, Salida entertained the District at an all day meeting and Luncheon, which proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

That was the month our House committee originated, and has since functioned so efficiently. We purchased a beautiful new Memory Book for our permanent History.

The Club sponcered Music Week that year and many excellent musical Programs were given during the entire week.

That spring we held our first Tulip Show which was a great success.

Again the Banquet was held in our own club rooms, and proved to be a most enjoyable affair.

I attended the state convention in Glenwood Springs and again received much inspiration to see me through another year as your president.

Our annual Flower show in August was bigger and better than ever, and we had visitors from 10 states besides from many cities in Colorado.

The Junior federated Club members were again our guests at The Rally meeting in September. During this year we have replaced many articles in our kitchen and had our piano tuned.

Our mid-winter meeting was very interesting and intertaining. Since then we have been trying to amend our bylaws. As usual new officers were elected at our april Business meeting.

In these two years we've kept up our Penny Art Fund, our Scholarship Fund, our Foundation Fund, and given our Custodian a small cash donation.

We've taken in 35 new members in these two years, lost 2 regular members and 1 honorary member by death. Last year our membership was 126, this year 116.

We look forward with pleasure to closing a most enjoyable two years with our Annual Banquet and the early Flower Show.

STEPHEN FOSTER TEA IS SPLENDID SUCCESS

The Stephen Foster Tea given Wednesday afternoon by the Tuesday Evening club chorus was a success artistically and financially.

The Tuesday Evening club chorus is composed of members from both the afternoon and evening departments of the club and is directed by Mrs. R. E. Condon.

A lovely program was given using songs written by the American composer, Stephen Foster. The stage was arranged to represent an old fashioned parlor of the period 1848-1861 and the chorus were dressed in costumes of the period, many of them being gowns worn by grandmothers long ago. The program was arranged in groups starting with the composer's first songs and ending with his last well-known song, "Old Black Joe."

Mrs. H. R. Koster, delightfully quaint and sweet in a gown worn by her grandmother, acted as historian. She told interesting facts about the life of the composer and gave the story of each song presented. Nearly every number on the program was familiar to the audience. "Oh, Susanna," the opening number came west with every covered wagon. "Old Folks at Home," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground," have been sung in American homes for the past 80 years. Most of the Stephen Foster compositions are sad and his understanding of the darky is clearly manifested by the pathos of his songs. "Camptown Races" showed the darky in a lighter, happier mood.

The songs were interpreted with much sympathy and understanding of the chorus, that one forgot they had lived again in the dim past. A medley of airs was played by a piano trio.

After the program, tea was served with Mrs. W. C. Heckman and Mrs. F. L. Coombs presiding at the table. They were beautifully costumed and the tea service had been in use since the days of Stephen Foster. Members of the chorus assisted in serving.

CAST OF PLAYLET ENTERED AT RECEPTION BY COMMITTEE

A pleasant sequel to the program "Women of the Bible," presented last week by the Tuesday Evening club, was the reception tendered Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Ben Graf by the committee in charge of the program, to the cast of the tableaux and the musicians. The committee in charge of the program was composed of Mrs. W. C. Heckman, chairman, Mrs. C. L. Shively, Mrs. M. V. Shonyo and Mrs. Ben Graf.

Besides the ladies taking part on the stage the guests included the members of the double quartet, and Mrs. H. R. Hay, who had charge of the music, and Mrs. F. C. Woody, accompanist.

One of the features of the reception was a guessing contest, in which Miss Helen Mosgrove returned a perfect score, having successfully guessed the answers to questions about many magazine advertisements.

Miss Mosgrove was awarded a pretty prize.

The guests played charades for a time and then played bridge at six tables. Just before the close of the evening a two course luncheon was served and all joined in singing: "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds." Mrs. Woody played the accompaniment.

BY CAROL DAY

The large audience which attended the program given by the Tuesday Evening Club at Assembly hall Wednesday evening was instructed and entertained. In order to show the characters of the famous women of the Bible a number of scenes were arranged in which these famous personages appeared. The curtain for the background, consisting of a desert scene in which palm trees, oriental tents and other features figured, was painted by Mrs. W. C. Heckman. The stage was beautifully decorated with bullrushes to carry out the idea of the River Nile.
The costumes were very appropriate to the various characters in the play. The scenes made the pages of the Bible vivid and gave one a better understanding of the lives of these great women.
Each of the readers and players did well and deserved the congratulations showered on them after the performance.

Plans Are Complete for Big Convention

The State Federation Convention of Women's clubs which will be in session in Salida Septembr 10-13, promises to be of unusual interest. Many prominent women plan to be present and a full and varied program will be offered during the meeting. Prominent speakers will be in evidence and the music, under competent supervision, promises pleasing entertainment.

Mrs. John F. Sippel, general federation president and Mrs. Eugene E. Lawson second vice-president of the general federation will be honored guests. Besides these ranking officers, Mrs. Mary Sherman (Colorado's Mary Sherman) immediate past president of the general federation will be in attendance at the convention. It is interesting to note that during the 1929 Council meeting at Swanscott, Mass., Mrs. Sherman received an ovation unsurpassed during the entire meeting.

Mrs. Sippel has interested herself especially in the program sponsored by the National Food Preservation Council for a nation-wide food preservation effort. Mrs. Sippel will give an address on Friday evening.

Mrs. Lawson is on the program Friday evening. She will present a group of Indian songs in costume. Mrs. Lawson was formerly chairman of music.

Thursday evening the department of fine arts will have charge of the program. ## INDIVIDUAL DISPLAYS, ORGANIZATION AND GROUP PIECES WIN HIGH PRAISE FROM HUNDREDS OF VISITORS AT ELKS HOME YESTERDAY—TUESDAY EVENING CLUB TO BE HIGHLY COMPLIMENTED FOR GROWTH AND BEAUTY OF SHOW AND INSTILLING MORE INTEREST AMONG LOCAL GARDENERS.

Each year the Flower Show, sponsored by the Tuesday Evening Club, is growing in splendor and beauty. As a result, many Salida homes and gardens are made more beautiful from year to year as interest deepens. More and more gardeners try their hand at planning and watching the development of a garden and flowers.

This makes Salida a more beautiful city during the growing season and could there be a more noble enterprise.

The Tuesday Evening Club, with Mrs. L. D. Hightower as chairman of the Flower Show Committee, are indeed to be congratulated on the success of this project.

Among the outstanding displays was that of the Wanagi Camp Fire girls, who constructed and gathered a table of thirty-three varieties of wild flowers. The flowers were beautifully arranged in rocks, moss and dead timber, giving the display the natural surroundings in which the flowers grow.

A mountain garden, constructed by Mrs. Neil Mehring and Mrs. John Burgener was unique, attracting much attention and admiration. Other attractive displays included the E. E. Club and the co-operative display of the proper setting of a dinner table by the Tuesday Evening Club.

A table filled with beautiful floral pieces and bouquets displayed by clubs and organizations won the admiration of all visitors. The register of those attending the show gave names from many states in the hundreds listed.

Many unusual plants and flowers were displayed, among them a Princess feather, displayed by Mr. and Mrs. Ned Lanari.

A complete list of entries and prize winners of the Flower Show will be published in Tuesday's issue of the Salida Record.

Display of Gardens Tuesday

By L. A. BARRETT

Did you visit any of the gardens listed for display Tuesday afternoon by the Tuesday Evening Club? Thirty-one of them, representing every section of the city, were open to the public during the afternoon and a goodly number of visitors were reported at each of the homes.

The president of the Tuesday Evening Club asked your correspondent to drop in on each of the thirty-one and give an impression of each in a sentence or two with a result that he spent a very enjoyable afternoon Tuesday.

Starting at the Bonomo home at 722 West 2nd, your correspondent found an unusually fine looking vegetable garden with a goodly supply of corn, squash, cucumbers, brocoli and a number of other garden plants covering nearly the entire back yard. To the side and front of the home, were perennial sweet peas, golden glow and poppies.

Across the street at the home of Mrs. Mehos at 719 West Second were to be found some unusually tall dahlias both the white and bronze colored varieties. A vine covered trellis across the back porch soon will shade the house completely. Rich colored glads and golden glow were in evidence as were some luscious looking tiger lillies.

At the Jake Butula home at 605 West Second is a trellis of woodbine that completely covers the rear of the home and hides the kitchen from the sun. A thrifty looking vegetable garden shares honors with California poppies, sweet peas and dahlias. An especially fine lettuce bed was in evidence.

Four lots at the home of John Butula at 434 West Second are planted with a wealth of both vegetables and flowers. Phlox and tiger lillies vie with beans, lettuce, cucumbers and beets for attention. A bed of golden glow adds a distinct dash of color while dahlias nod their heads in the ## Washington Program Presented by T. E. C.

Feb 2 - 1932

A patriotic program, honoring the Bicentennial of George Washington, was given by the Home and Current Events Department of the Tuesday Evening Club, February 2.

Mrs. Theodore C. Bode was chairman of the program committee with Mrs. D. C. Kern and Mrs. W. O. Heckman assisting.

Mrs. L. E. Thompson and Mrs. L. A. Barrett were in charge of the musical program. The program opened with Mrs. Barrett playing Sousa's famous march, "The Stars and Strips Forever."

Mrs. Kern chose as her topic, "The Youth and Manhood of George Washington," upon which she gave a splendid talk.

Following this, "The Star Spangled Banner," was impressively played by Mrs. Thompson.

Mrs. Bode made a few brief remarks concerning Washington's home and that of his mother, passing pictures of each while Mrs. Thompson played and sang, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean."

With Mrs. L. A. Barrett playing soft strains from "Long, Long Ago," Miss Louise Curfman recited, "The Minuet."

Under the direction of Mrs. Heckman the minuet was danced by the following ladies: the Mesdames Aylmer Reeves, Guy V. Travers, Roy Connelley, R. L. Brown, J. A. Bittel, G. H. Curfman, William Crylle and Harry Croser. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Barrett.

"Washington's Farewell to His Mother," was done in tableaux by Mrs. W. R. Hathaway, as the mother, and Mrs. J. A. Bittel as George Washington. Accompanying this pose Mrs. Heckman read the prayer of blessing.

Mrs. Kern gave a reading, "Old Glory," while arrangements were being made for the second tableaux, "Betsy Ross," that was presented by the following: Mrs. L. A. Barrett, Betsy Ross; Mrs. J. A. Bittel, George Washington; Mrs. Guy V. Travers, Major Ross and Mrs. G. H. Curfman, Mr. Morris. The child upon whom all attention was centered, was little Elaine White, 3 year old daughter of Coach and Mrs. Harold White. Her ability for holding a pose for an indefinite time was most unusual.

"Martha and George Washington at Valley Forge," was done by Mrs. Croser and Mrs. Bittel.

The program closed with a tableaux, "The Tea Party," a colonial tea. This was posed by all participants in the afternoon's program.

Lovely refreshments were served by the Mesdames T. C. Bode, W. J. Lipard and W. O. Heckman.

Federation Thanks City For Its Hospitality

The 35th Annual Convention of the Federated Women's club of Colorado closed Friday evening with a varied program. The first part of the program was given over to the district presidents, who in turn, told of the work done by their clubs during the past year. Any who doubt that the women's clubs accomplish anything should have heard these reports.

Mrs. H. G. Bogert in a few well chosen words thanked Salida for the wonderful hospitality extended to the convention and Mrs. F. C. Woody and Mrs. A. E. Tuck for the music and Mrs. F. E. Park, local chairman, for her cooperation.

Special visitors to the convention Friday evening were Mrs. Gay, state president of Federated clubs of Wyoming; Mrs. Tolliver, an officer in the General Federation, also of Wyoming and Mrs. Keyes of Buffalo, New York.

Mrs. E. R. Walker of Craig, accompanied by Mrs. F. C. Woody, sang two songs in a most pleasing manner. One number was especially pleasing to Mrs. Mary K. Sherman and Mrs. John F. Sippel because it was about grandmothers.

Mrs. Eugene B. Lawson told of her ancestry and Mrs. John F. Sippel spoke on community enrichment.

Mrs. Ora M. Rech, Pioneer Salidan, Is Called By Death

Mrs. Ora M. Spencer Rech, a resident of Salida for 45 years, died at 4:00 o'clock Monday afternoon at her home, 216 D street. She had been in failing health for the past year but her condition became critical only a short time ago. She was the widow of the late William Rech, who was chief dispatcher for the D. & R. G. W. railroad. They also operated a book and stationery supply store for a number of years.

Mrs. Rech was born in Marian, Minn. She was married to William Rech June 3, 1886, at Crested Butte. Mrs. Rech was a very active member in church and social life. She was a charter member of the Tuesday Evening Club and the Monday Whist Club. She was made a member of the Tuesday Evening Club on its 50th anniversary a short time ago. She was also a member of the Ascension church and the Ascension Church Guild.

Mrs. Rech is survived by a niece, Mrs. H. F. Rambo of Tulsa, Okla., and a nephew, William S. Spencer of Los Angeles. Mrs. Rambo will arrive Wednesday afternoon to attend the services, which will be conducted at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Ascension church. The Rev. G. B. Oakes will officiate and interment will be in Fairview cemetery.

C. F. W. C. Delegates Enjoy Princeton Trip

"The most interesting session of the convention," this was the unanimous opinion of the visiting C. F. W. C. delegates regarding the trip to Mt. Princeton Hot Springs Friday afternoon.

In compliment to the Federated club of Buena Vista, and because of the beautiful surroundings of our neighboring city, the visitors were taken to Buena Vista and then to Mt. Princeton over the mesa road. A beautiful day, the peaks glistening in their mantle of new snow, and the wonderful colorings of the autumn foliage filled the visitors with ecstasy.

On arriving at Mt. Princeton the guests were taken to Hotel Antero where they were received by Mrs. F. J. Doveton and Mrs. Clarence Darby acting hostesses for the Tuesday Evening club. Baskets of wild flowers fittingly decorated the lobbies of the hotel. Tea was served in the dining room which was arranged for the convenience of the guests. Mrs. H. Preston and Mrs. W. C. Heckman presided over a well appointed tea table which was decorated with a large basket of marigolds and lighted candles. Assisting with the serving were Miss Allison Preston, Mrs. S. O. Swartz, Mrs. Charles Rush, and Mrs. Wendell Chrest. The Rev. A. E. Tuck entertained with several groups of songs during the serving of the 220 persons present. Mrs. A. E. Tuck was accompanist.

Community Chorus Gives Fine Program

The Community Chorus which made its first public appearance Sun. afternoon at the High School auditorium, presented a most enjoyable program. The work of the Chorus was very remarkable and proved itself a credit to its director and accompanist and an asset to the community. All the numbers were well given and well balanced and gave evidence of progress which may be made in few months of rehearsals. Miss Genevieve Spina, accompanied by Mrs. Louise Woody sang two lovely solos in Italian and Charles and Frank Williams greatly pleased the audience with their splendid duet, "O Sole Mio," also sung in Italian and accompanied by Mrs. Condon. The men of the Chorus are to be complimented on splendid manner in which they sang their two selections.

The Chorus is under the capable direction of Mrs. R. E. Condon and holds rehearsals every Thursday evening at six-thirty, at McCray School. Mrs. C. E. Upp is the capable accompanist for the Chorus. Anyone in the community who is interested in singing, is invited and urged to join this chorus.

"THE CHILD MOSES," PLAYED TO CROWDED HOUSE

One of the finest of the many splendid programs given by the Tuesday Evening Club of Salida was that presented recently, entitled, "The Child Moses," a three-act play with an epilogue.

The first act depicted a night scene when the edict of Pharaoh is pronounced by a bugler. Jochabed is shown preparing her little son to be cast into the river. A very excellent representation of an Egyptian room was made with Oriental rugs, Bagdad draperies, incense burners and tapers, all of which made the play very real. The second scene showed the river Nile, with the desert and the pyramids and camels in the distance. Bulrushes lined a portion of the bank of the river, and here the baby is found by the Princess Thermuthis and her attendants. The Princess calls him her "little Moüses," and at once determines that he shall be brought up as her own child. He is given over to the care of an Israelite woman (his mother) who is brought to the Princess by little Miriam (his sister), who has been hiding among the rushes watching over her baby brother. The third scene depicts the unbounded joy of Jochabed and her husband, Amram, that God has saved their little son to be the deliverer of his people. The epilogue shows Miriam grown to womanhood, and she tells of her part in saving her brother to be the deliverer of his people.

Each member of the cast put her best efforts into her part and showed not only great ability but great care and thought.

Mrs. Kindsvater and Mrs. Hickman, who directed the rehearsals, selected the cast and prepared the scenery, deserve the greatest praise for their untiring efforts and skill. As the poet says, "The Play's the Thing?" but the beautiful scenery, the wonderful tableaux, pantomime, musical program, etc., which preceded and led up to the play, prepared the audience for a much higher appreciation of the play.

Five beautiful tableaux were given, (1st) "Pharaoh's two Favorite Singers," (2nd) "Egyptian Dancer," (3rd) "Egyptian Water Carrier," (4th) "Group of Egyptian Women," (5th) "Group of Egyptian Dancers." The beautiful costumes and colored lights made these tableaux most artistic. The pantomime "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," acted by Miss Catherine Panton, while a trio sang the song, was beautiful and most effective.

The musical program consisted of: Solos, "Fear Not Ye Oh Israel," "Eye Hath Not Seen;" Duet, "Open the Gates of the Temple;" Trio, "I Have Set Watchmen," and "Just for Today;" Sextette, "How Lovely Are Thy Messengers." The program was arranged so that after each tableau a musical number followed.

Mrs. F. C. Woody, who was the accompanist for the entire musical program, as usual fulfilled her part with rare skill, and made this part of the program a wonderful accessory.

The club rooms could not accommodate all the members and guests who came and many requests were made that the entire program be repeated.

General Meeting of Tuesday Evening Club.

This being the only general meeting of the Tuesday Evening club since their rally meeting the first of last October, it proved to be a most enjoyable reunion of the members of all departments and a large per centage of the enrollment was present. A delightful musical program was given, chief among which were a number of selections by the Manful orchestra, each of which was loudly applauded and greatly enjoyed. The ladies felt highly complimented and honored to be so greatly favored and gave themselves up to the enjoyment of the treat.

The other musical numbers were: Piano solo, Miss Pauline Cook; vocal trio, Mrs. Tanton, Mrs. Brewster and Mrs. Panton; vocal solo, "Good bye, Sweet Day," Miss Jennie L. Trott; all of which gave much pleasure. A monologue, "Her First Visit to the Market," by Miss Jewell, was highly appreciated and added greatly to a very fine program.

A social hour followed during which refreshments of delicious sandwiches and coffee were served.

It was decided to extend the invitation to the Western Slope Federation to meet in Salida May 5 and 6 next, at which time there will be also the Executive Committee of the State Federation as guests of our club women. This will be a very great event in club circles and is anticipated with a great deal of interest and pleasure.

The department should prove popular and beneficial to the public.

A musical will be given on March 31 at the assembly hall for the purpose of raising funds for materials for this department.

Mrs. Rose Ridgway's Gift to Education

It seems fitting, at this time, to voice our appreciation of the splendid gift bequeathed to our Tuesday Evening Club, by one of our most beloved members, Mrs. Rose W. Ridgway.

This gift has been designated "The Rose Ridgway Memorial Scholarship Fund," and is to be used for the benefit of our local girls, desiring a loan that they may better fit themselves for life with a higher education.

Since Mrs. Ridgway was an educator in the public schools of our city and county for many years—and one who gave untiringly of herself to educate the youth of our city, we feel that our bequest could not be more fittingly used.

Mrs. Ridgway gave splendid, faithful service to the schools, to our Club, and to our community—always working for the good of her fellow-man. Faithful service was the keynote of her life.

By MRS. C. E. TANTON,
Corresponding Secretary of The Tuesday Evening Club of Salida, Colorado.

TUESDAY EVENING CLUB GIVES "THE ROSE MAIDEN"

"The Rose Maiden" presented by the Tuesday Evening club for the benefit of the scholarship fund, at the High school auditorium last Friday evening, was well attended and a gratifying sum was realized.

Mrs. S. K. Murdock and Mrs. Baird were in charge of the evening. They were assisted by Miss Mabel Gloyd, as musical director, and Mrs. F. C. Woody, accompanist.

The soloists were the Misses Catherine Panton, Helen Mosgrove, Mabel Gloyd, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. C. E. Tanton, Lee Lewis, Harry Hampson, C. D. Gloyd and Eugene Albright, all of whom did remarkably well, each beautiful number being enthusiastically encored by the audience.

The chorus work was exceptionally good. The bridal chorus, "Tis Thy Wedding Morning," is deserving of special mention.

The production was high class in every detail. No lover of music could fail to enjoy the exquisite harmony of this unusual work so delightfully interpreted by both accompanist and singers.

The perfect attention of the audience throughout the entire evening was proof of the appreciation of all present.

BIBLICAL PLAY MAKES HIT WITH LARGE AUDIENCE

The Assembly hall was crowded Tuesday evening, January 13, when the Literature, Music and Art department of the Tuesday Evening club presented "The Child Moses," which depicts the infant life of the Great Prophet. Every one connected with the play did her utmost to make it the big success it proved to be. The scenery was admired by all and special mention should be made of the river scene, which conformed as nearly as possible with the biblical description of the place, where Pharaoh's daughter found the infant in a floating basket. The scenery was carefully planned and designed by Mrs. Kindsvater and Mrs. Heckman.

The play consisted of four acts. The first depicting the night scene—Pharaoh's edict given; second, day scene—Jochebed preparing the basket in which to set her little son afloat; third, finding of the basket by the princess, who ordered the child taken to the palace; fourth—Miriam grown to womanhood and her song of rejoicing and the angels praising god. The cast of characters for the play was composed of the following. Amram, father of Moses—Miss Catherine Panton.

Jochebed, mother of Moses—Miss Helen Hanks.
Miriam, the Child—Miss Eleanor Rupp.
Khai, an Egyptian Official—Mrs. Emma Lavery.

Thermuthis, the Princess—Mrs. Rose Ridgway.
Kilagipa and Zonharti, Ladies of the King's household—Mrs. Rose Twitchell, Miss Leah Sandusky.
Jannes and Jambres, Sacred Scribes of the King—Mrs. Maude Graf and Mrs. Florence Lippard.
Miriam Grown-Up—Miss Hazel Schoolfield.
Guardian Angel—Miss Grace Ragan.
Bugler—Mr. D. J. Kramer.
Messenger—Miss Anna Heckman.
The Heavenly Host—Misses Theresa Ryan, Anna Heckman, Louie Hay, Mrs. Ermel Rupp, Mrs. Grace Ragan, Mrs. Jessie Schoolfield.

Each member of the cast did her part of natural ability combined with careful rehearsal. Mrs. Kindsvater and Mrs. Heckman, who directed the play deserve great credit for their success and the skill with which each actor took her part.

As the poet says "The play is the thing," but the beautiful tableaux, pantomime, musical program, etc., which preceded, led the audience happily on toward better enjoyment of "The Child Moses."

The red, yellow and purple lights which played on the tableaux made the effect unusually beautiful.

Five tableaux were given:

1. Pharaoh's two favorite singers—Mrs. Jessie Schoolfield, and Mrs. Grace Ragan.

2. Egyptian Dancer—Miss Arline Graf.

3. Egyptian Water Carrier—Mrs. Ada Hood.

4. Group of Egyptian Women—Sadie Smith, Mrs. Fannie Gloyd

Sextette, "How Lovely are the Mes- Clara Morck. sengers" by Mendelsohn—Mrs. Grace Baird, Mrs. Jean Tanton, the Misses Phippeny, Hart, Smith and Lewis.

The program was beautifully arranged so that after each tableaux a musical number was given.

Mrs. F. C. Woody was the accompanist for the entire program, including the play. The music was an essential part of the program and, as usual, Mrs. Woody fulfilled her part skillfully and helped greatly to make the program the big success that it was.

The program was preceded by the regular business meeting when Mrs. Hallie Park read a well prepared and interesting paper on "Love Stories of the Bible" in which she introduced her audience to many lovable characters and their ideal couplings.

led peasant life of their native country and each had vividly portrayed them through his art. Pictures by Millet were shown, and Grieg's works were beautifully played by Mrs. Pauline Bruderlin. Many remarked that they had never heard her play so well.

Burns' works, "A Man's a Man for a' That," and "On the Banks of Bonnie Doone," were given by Mrs. F. C. Woody and her two daughters, the Misses Catherine and Emily Panton.

Some opera notes were given by members of the club and some of the best records were played. The closing feature of the evening was three numbers by Mrs. S. R. Beckley, rendered in her usual charming and artistic way.

Refreshments were served and the club members expressed themselves as having had a delightful evening.
