THE CREW (CLASSES)

I sent my ship across the boundless sea
In search of hidden treasure, meant for me.
Here's a priceless cargo I reclaimed;
That cargo is the knowledge I have gained.

SENIOR CLASS

... Having neared the end of their voyage, sad at seeing so few days of their four-year trip remaining, face the end of the voyage. Safe in other harbors, they will look back on these memories.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The class of '39 enrolled as Freshmen no greener than the usual lot of Freshies. They numbered 98 in all. They were a live-wire group with Mr. Soles as sponsor. They presented an assembly program and enjoyed a picnic at Wellsville.

As Sophomores the Class of '39 settled down to more serious work, but they presented a musical program assembly and held a picnic at Mt. Princeton. Miss Mosgrove and Mr. Hampshire were the sponsors.

As Juniors, under Mr. King's and Miss Irwin's guidance, they again became a progressive class. They held a contest to sell tickets for one of the play assemblies. The girls lost and entertained the boys at a party in the gym. The class sponsored three play assemblies:

Lewis Hoskins gave an electrical show January 11.

James Williams gave a liquid air demonstration February 11.

Orendo, the magician, rendered the final assembly March 9.

In addition to these assemblies the Junior Class Play, "New Fires," was given.

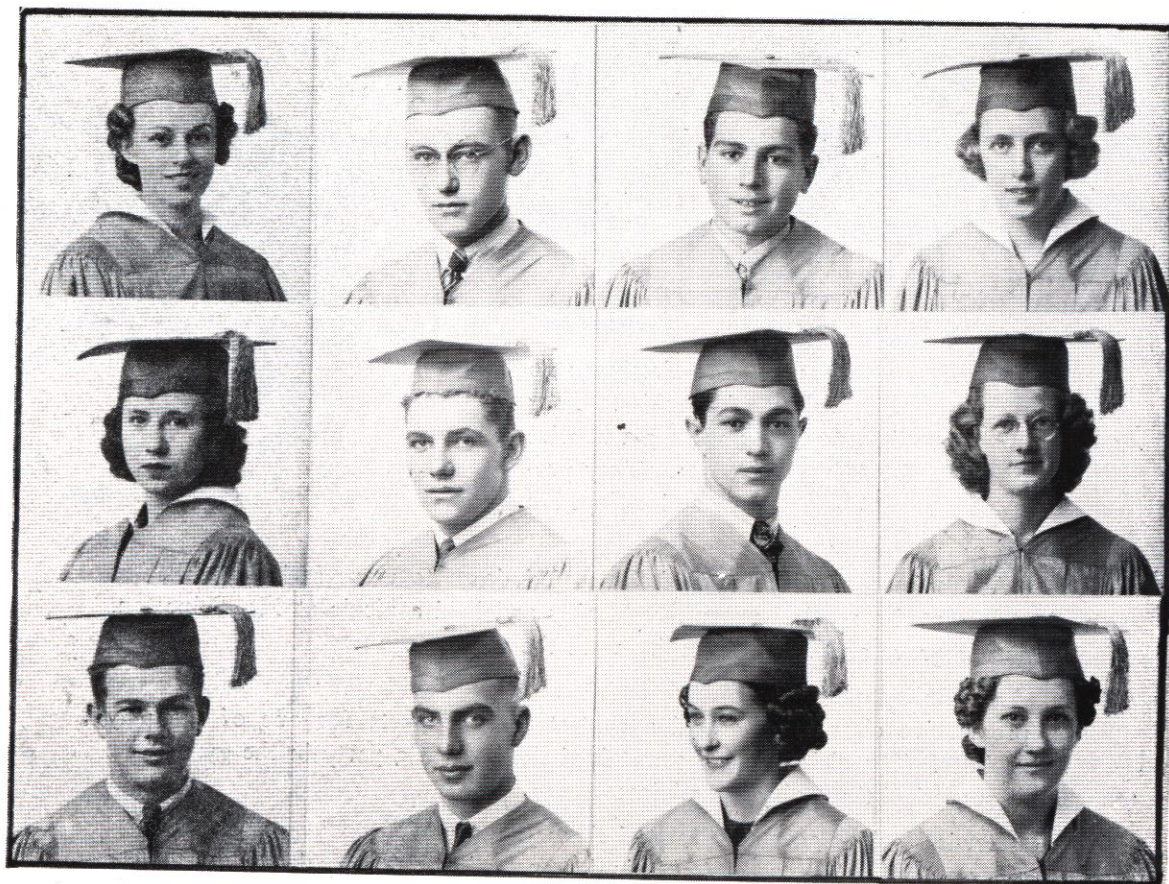

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held on Saturday, May 21, in the basement of the Methodist Church and the dance in the H. B. & V. Hall. A Hawaiian theme was carried out, and the hall was beautifully decorated.

In their final year the class had the distinction of being the largest graduating class in the history of the Highschool, with a total of 81 Seniors. The Seniors gave an interesting assembly during the first semester. Mr. Barrett and Miss Halverson undertook the task of sponsoring the class.

The officers for the four years were as follows:

| | PRESIDENT | VICE-PRESIDENT | SECRETARY | TREASURER |
|----------------|---------------|-------------------|-----------------|---------------|
| Senior Year | Melvin Hyatt | Weldon Richardson | Suzanne Stewart | Betty Beck |
| Junior Year | Melba Winburn | Richard Haley | Mildred Vaughn | Carroll Welch |
| Sophomore Year | Richard Haley | Lloyd Miller | Lloyd Fleck | Harry Ostrum |
| Freshman Year | Harry Ostrum | Richard Haley | Lois McDonough | Jack Smith |

JUNIOR CLASS 1938-9

These hardened, three-year students have become Old Salts, thoroughly at home in foreign parts, and they conscientiously work to make the voyage safe and profitable and to show their underlings how it's all done.

On the sixth day of September, 88 students entered their third year of high-school. It may be best to speak of them as the "Class of '40."

At the first class meeting officers were elected as follows: Jack Turner, president; Mary Mansheim, vice-president; Eleanor Matthews, secretary, and Ruth Darby, treasurer.

The first thing on the program for the class was a dance held in the high-school gym on November 24. The big event of the school for the month of December was the Junior Class Play presented December 9. The play was titled "Tons of Money," and was well attended. The following people participated in the play: Charles Bennett, Mary Mansheim, Donna Perry, Eleanor Matthews, Daniel Hayden, James Craig, Frank Williams, Donna Mae Vaughn, Donald Hayden, Joe McKeen. It was decided after the play that the Seniors would not have to eat hamburgers, but would be given the best banquet possible.

The last statement proved to be a reality when the Annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom were given May 6. The Banquet was held at the Methodist Church, where a very fine meal was served. Later dancing was enjoyed at the H. B. & V. Hall. The entire affair was carried out in Mexican decorations.

Many other things were done by this peppy class thanks to the officers and sponsors, and the fine support of the entire class.

BAND

Student Director.....Jack Turner
Secretary.....Carroll Welch
Librarian.....Bobby Bender

The Salida Highschool Band was organized in 1928. It now has thirty-five members. They had new uniforms this year.

The band meets the first period every Monday, Wednesday and Friday with their conductor, Mr. Mobeck. Two and one-half credits are given for this subject.

The band played at all the football games on the home field and accompanied the team to Pueblo. November 25 the Shriners invited the Salida Highschool Band to participate in their annual ceremony. They were awarded a gold cup for their performance.

On March 3, the play, "Here Comes Charlie," was given by the band to raise money to go to the state festival in Pueblo. The cast of players were as follows: Julianne Masters, Charles Allen Paul, Vivian Sydenham, Ellsworth Blanchard, Warren Watson, Betty Sympson, Paul Cribari, Shirley Sympson, Catherine Brown, Myron Roberts.

The band attended the State Music Festival in Pueblo on April 21. A concert was also presented in April.

GIRLS' PEP CLUB

President Dorothy Loughlin
 Vice-President..... Iona Matthews
 Secretary-Treasurer..... Betty Burgener

This club is sponsored by Miss Geneva Woodward. Twenty girls belonged this year. The girls appeared in their purple and white uniforms at all home football games. During the halves of the games they put on special performances. They also went to Pueblo on the special to attend the Centennial football game.

All students who were taking two commercial subjects were eligible to join this club, which was sponsored by Mr. Rouse. The meetings were held the first Thursday of every month. A party was given for the members at Mr. Rouse's home in December. A Christmas party was given for the members at Vivian Sydenham's.

The Commercial Club presented an assembly in May. This consisted of a play directed by Mary Kopp. A school paper was published by the club members.

BETA PHI

President Thelma Hyatt
 Vice-President Suzanne Stewart
 Treasurer Ruth Darby
 Secretary Lois McDonough

The Beta Phi Literary Society was organized in the year of 1923 for the purpose of developing the artistic abilities of the girls. This organization has gone on from year to year made up of selected Junior and Senior girls of the school under the leadership of Miss Mosgrove. The colors are pink and lavender; the flower, sweet pea.

Beta Phi met once a month to study authors, stories and hobbies of famous people.

This year two Seniors and eight Juniors were carefully selected by the members in October. The new members were initiated at a party given in their honor. In December, a colorful Christmas pageant was presented for an assembly program. A dinner was held in the Home Economics Rooms on February 14.

ACTIVITIES

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

President Melba Winburn
 Vice-President Bob Preece
 Secretary Carroll Welch
 Treasurer Raymond Stotler

This club was organized December 9, 1937, with Miss Woodward as sponsor. The International Relations Club has grown considerably in the last year and now has a membership of about thirty students. Several of the students have presented informal discussions on current problems before the Rotary Club and other organizations this year. The club has attended the conference of International Relations Clubs held at Denver University for the past two years. This year the members of the club earned enough money to send every member of the club to the conference on April 21 and 22, by giving pie sales, selling on the special train and giving a dance.

The dance was a semi-formal affair given in the gymnasium just before the Christmas vacation. The gym was beautifully decorated and a queen was chosen by those attending.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS' CLUB

The Salida Chapter was sponsored by Miss Irwin. Honorary members were Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Herrick.

A Homemakers' Convention was held in Denver in the fall and the club was made a state organization. Delegates from Salida were: Virginia Fiorelli, Ermenia Bartolo from the Freshman Class, and Jacqueline Herrick from the advanced class. Jacqueline Herrick was elected State President.

The club entered a float in the Homecoming Football Parade and at Christmas gave a luncheon and exchanged gifts. Another luncheon and handkerchief shower was given in honor of Miss Shallabarger, a student teacher from Greeley.

On St. Patrick's Day an assembly and all-school dance was given. The Home Economics Teachers' Association invited members of the club to their convention on April 22, at the Broadmore Hotel in Colorado Springs. The girls chose for their year's project—ways and means for sending delegates to the conference.

Most of the club also attended a conference including a style show and general meeting at Monte Vista in the spring.

This club has a membership of 40 and is sponsored by Miss Beth Irwin. The meeting date was the second and fourth Wednesday of each month. "Traveling in Foreign Lands," was chosen as the theme for the year. Many interesting programs were presented.

The year was opened with a grand kid party for prospective members. It was held in the gymnasium with a large attendance. An assembly was presented in November. This consisted of a play directed by Thelma Hyatt.

On March 8 the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held in the basement of the Methodist Church. The theme of the Banquet was "Foreign Lands."

On March 11, fifteen girls attended the District Convention for Girl Reserves in Canon City.

GLEE CLUB

The school year 1938-39 could boast one of the finest and largest vocal organizations in the history of Salida High. Again this year a Mixed Choir was organized in addition to the regular Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs.

During the year all three groups contributed songs to various churches and clubs.

The boys sponsored their annual dance in January, and the girls again gave a successful "Fem's Fancy."

During November 18-20, the boys went to Greeley where they were privileged to sing in the Colorado Symphonic Choir, under the direction of Dr. Walter Aschenbrenner, director of the Chicago Symphonic Choir.

At various times during the year sales were held to help raise money to enable the young musicians to attend the Choral Festival at Pueblo and a regional meeting in Colorado Springs.

On February 3, the combined glee clubs, along with the help of other students, produced a three-act comedy entitled "Hollywood Bound." The cast included Sam Cribari, Betty Scull, Virginia Pierce, Jane Travers, Carroll Welch, Howard Rupp, Mary Marquardt, Verne Knipp, Warren Watson, Sherman DeVoe and Daniel Hayden. These people were supported by a chorus of thirty voices.

HOMECOMING PARADE

The Salida Highschool Homecoming Parade was held October 8. The parade started from the Alpine Park at 12:30 o'clock with the Highschool Band in the lead. The Girls' Pep Club came next; following them were the class floats. Car floats made up the rest of the parade.

First place went to the Senior Class float, which was the Homecoming Queen's Float.

Also represented in the parade were the various clubs and organizations of the school.

The parade preceded the football game with Trinidad Highschool. At the half, the Queen, Ruth Johnson, chosen by the Senior Class, was to be crowned; but this was prevented by bad weather.

JUNIOR SPORTS CLUB

| | |
|---------------------|-----------------|
| President..... | Ruth Johnson |
| Vice-President..... | Melba Winburn |
| Secretary..... | Lenore Morrison |
| Treasurer..... | Betty Burgener |

The Junior Sports Club was organized in the fall of 1937 by Mr. Soles. Since much enthusiasm was shown that year it was continued in the fall of 1938. The group is anxious to expand into other fields such as rifling, skiing, arching and other things along this same line. They made many enjoyable trips into the mountains.

Any student in school is eligible to join this club.

LIBRARY CLUB

Miss Halverson sponsors this club of twelve girls who must be in the upper fourth of their class in scholarship. Each year the outgoing members' places are filled by election. These girls assist in the library work. Meetings are held every two weeks at which time book reviews of recent books are given.

It is customary for the Library Club to present the assembly during National Book Week. This year a new idea in assembly programs was tried. Characters from familiar books were represented by the Library Club girls; the students guessed who they were. Each boy and girl having the greatest number correct was given a copper book mark.

A chili supper was held in the first semester. Each member of the club invited a guest.

Each year the club carries out a project for the school. This year they gave the picture, The Canterbury Pilgrims, which may be seen on the wall of the library.

About three hundred new books were placed in the library this year. The students made much greater use of the new facilities for periodicals, references and recreational reading. An average of sixty books a day were checked out.

SCHOLASTIC CONTEST

Again this year Salida entered contestants in the Gunnison Scholarship contests. Salida was a center and several other towns sent their contestants here. On April 29 our team of fifteen pupils representing all the subjects in the High-school gathered with the guests and took the tests sent out from Gunnison. The papers were graded and sent back to Gunnison. Our team consisted of Betty Burgener, Bill Benedict, Jessie Chandler, Reta Cuenin, Leta Cantonwine, Billy Fiorelli, Robin Gough, Muriel Davis, Maxine Heberer, Mary Mansheim, Eleanor Matthews, Thelma Moreland, Raymond Stotler, Mildred Vaughn and Melba Winburn.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization placed in the school to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership and to encourage the development of character in students.

During the first semester of this year the faculty elected eight new members to the National Honor Society.

The formal initiation was held March 23. The ceremony was simple, dignified and contains essential features to be held continually before the members. The president, Melba Winburn, having been elected in her Junior year, conducted the ceremony.

The students elected into the National Honor Society this year were Raymond Stotler, Mildred Vaughn, Russell Harmon, Melvin Hyatt, Ruth Johnson, Harry Ostrum, Seniors. Eleanor Matthews and Betty Burgener were the Juniors.

"S" CLUB

President.....Bill Brazil
Vice-President.....Richard Haley
Secretary.....Bob Watters
Treasurer.....Joe Starbuck

This club was organized December 15, 1937 at a banquet held at Coach Mehring's home. He was the sponsor and originator of the "S" Club.

The club had a basketball team entered in the highschool league last year. They advanced to the finals in the highschool tournament. A second annual Mother and Son Banquet was enjoyed by the members of the club at the Methodist Church this year.

The boys in the club had another very good basketball team this year, playing several teams from out of town, as well as being in the regular school league. They won the highschool tournament this year.

ATHLETICS FOOTBALL

This year the Spartans ended up one of the oddest seasons in Spartan history. The season was ended with three ties chalked up to the Spartans. Although the team finished third in the S. C. League, they may consider their season a success as they met three conference champs—Pueblo Central, LaJunta and Cortez, and not one of them was able to defeat the Spartans. The Spartans were the only team to as much as tie Pueblo Central's State Champions. Salida had the best defensive record in the League with only 32 points scored against them in the conference.

The Spartans played a schedule of nine games this year.

THE GAMES

MONTROSE

After only two weeks of practice the team motored to Montrose to open the season there. In a poorly played game by the Spartans they succeeded in downing the Indians by a score of 13-6. L. Miller scored both touchdowns.

LA JUNTA

The Spartans met a strong La Junta team who later in the season played in the state quarter-finals. Although the Spartans were outweighed they managed to come out on the long end of a 14-12 score. L. Fleck and L. Miller each scored one touchdown.

TRINIDAD

The Spartans opened their conference schedule on home soil with the Trinidad Miners. It was a hard-fought game by two evenly matched teams. The Spartans threatened one very seriously during the game but neither eleven were able to score and the game ended in a scoreless tie—the first tie in the S. C. League since 1931.

CANON

Accompanied by a large group of boosters the Canon Tigers invaded Salida confident of a victory. But their hopes were turned down by a stronger Spartan eleven who defeated the Tigers by the close score of 13-12. The Spartans were lead by Captain Mann who accounted for all of the thirteen points.

CENTENNIAL

Probably what was an overconfident Spartan team journeyed to Pueblo for their first defeat of the season by the Centennial Bulldogs. The Bulldogs scored late in the second quarter. The Spartans threatened seriously several times but were unable to push across for a score. This was the second straight year for the Bulldogs to defeat the Spartans.

WALSENBURG

The Spartans again took to the road. This time successfully. In a game in which the second team saw action for a whole half, the Spartans defeated the Walsenburg Panthers by two touchdowns and a safety, making a score of 16-0. Post and Miller scored the touchdowns.

CENTRAL

The Central Wildcats came to Salida with a group of over 1,000 fans following them. The Wildcats had a strong team but the Spartans were a good match for them. The Wildcats scored in the first half and it looked like a defeat for the Spartans until the closing minutes of the game when L. Fleck thrilled the Armistice Day crowd with an 80-yard run for a touchdown. The game ended in a 7-7 tie, the second tie for the Spartans.

CORTEZ

In a game which had not been previously scheduled the Spartans defeated a light but speedy and deceptive Cortez eleven. The Cortez Panthers, champions of the San Juan Basin, were well coached by Jack Woodward, a former Spartan backfield ace. Since neither team had not scouted the other it was a wide-open game. The score was 26-19.

COLORADO SPRINGS

On Thanksgiving Day the Spartans went to Colorado Springs to play their last game of the season in the Will Rogers Memorial Stadium. The Terrors had not been able to win a conference game but were successful in tying the Spartans by a 7-7 score. This was the third tie of the season for the Spartans. J. Muto was the outstanding player in this game.

PERSONNEL OF THE SPARTANS

Ends—F. Smith and L. Miller were our starting ends with F. Williams seeing considerable action. Miller was a very good punter and also a good pass receiver. Smith played a good game both on offense and defense. We lose both players this year.

Tackles—Skufca, J. Starbuck, A. Miller and Harmon. Skufca and Starbuck did the greater part of the playing at the tackle posts but Miller and Harmon were reliable substitutes. Skufca was our best and toughest lineman and has been elected captain for the 1939 season. Starbuck did a good job at playing the right tackle position. Starbuck and Harmon are men lost from the squad.

Guards—Watters, Davenport, G. Starbuck and Cribari. Watters was a very strong guard and added much to the strength of the line. He had the honor of being the only Spartan chosen on the All-State team. Davenport is a three-year man so you can see what kind of a player he was. Watters and Davenport played their last for purple and white but G. Starbuck and Cribari return and are expected to be two very powerful guards.

Centers—Kochman and Ostrum. Kochman was strong at backing up the line and also took charge of the signal-calling very well. Ostrum played very well when called upon for substituting. Both Kochman and Ostrum are lost from the squad by graduation.

Backs—Mann; Fleck, Haley, Post, Muto, Moltzer, Hyatt and Cuenin. The first four backs mentioned saw the most action. Captain Mann was the sparkplug of the 1938 Spartans. He gave the team pep and encouragement and saw to it that the team got a fair deal in all the games. L. Fleck was a very shifty runner and broke away for many long gains. Haley did most of the passing and was always in there doing his part. Post played his first year of highschool football and did a swell job of it. He returns to the team next year and will be a fine back. Muto was a very fast man and put his speed to advantage when possible. Moltzer was small but a shifty runner and a good blocker. Hyatt and Cuenin never saw much action but could be depended on for good substitutes. All these backs except Post have played their last for Salida High.

Out of the 21 lettermen only six return to the squad next year.

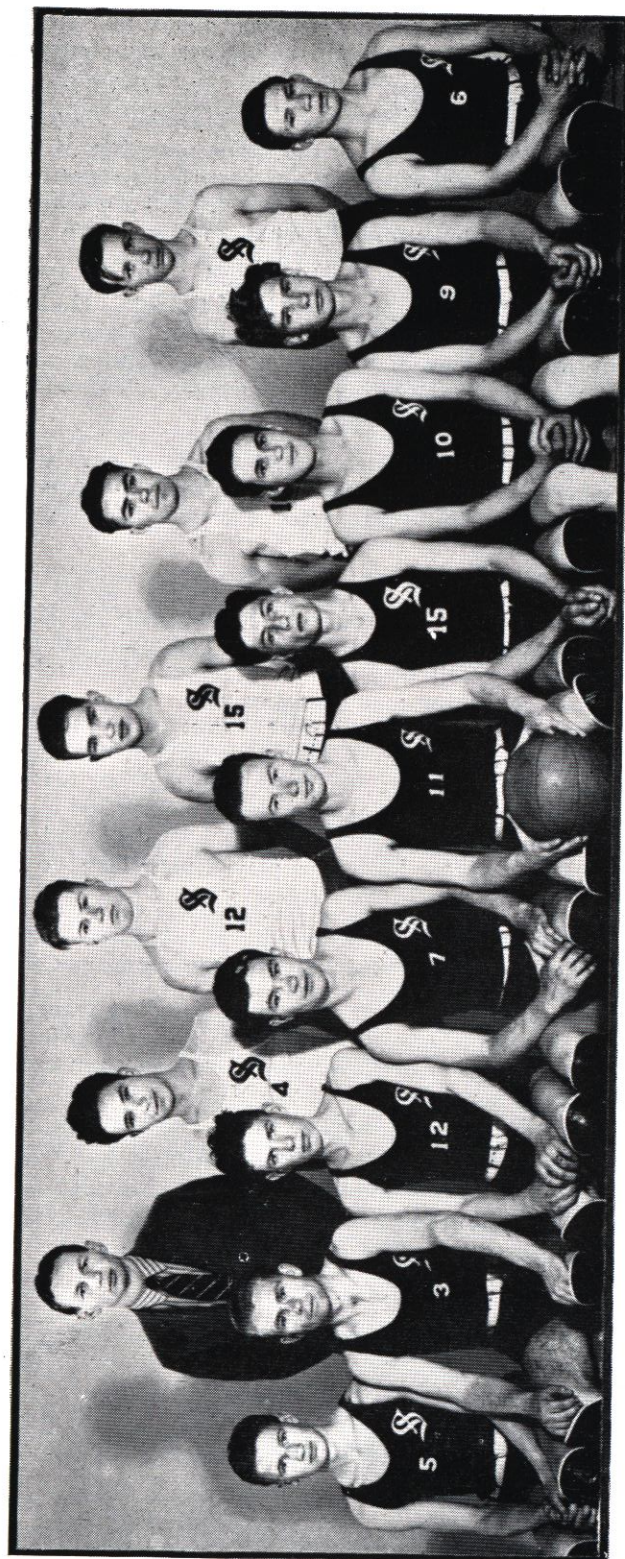

Players who received second team letters are: Bob Wilson, Dick Lines, Bob Meyer, Wally Fleck, Kay Nabors, Verne Ramey, Joe Garcia and Ross Weirick.

The Spartans placed one player on the all-district first team, two players on the all-conference first team and one player on the all-conference second team. Lloyd Miller won a guard berth on the all-district team and also a position on the all-conference second team. Elton Mann and Bud Thonhoff were chosen for the guard and forward positions respectively on the all-conference first team. The coaches of the West Central League picked the players for these teams.

Spring football started on April 3 and lasted three weeks. Forty boys reported for practice and showed promise for the coming season.

BASKETBALL

WEST CENTRAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

BASKETBALL

The Spartan basketball team withdrew from the South Central League and this year became members of the West Central League. A strong Spartan team emerged as pennant winners of the West Central League. The Spartans had only one loss marked up against them in the scheduled basketball season. The Spartans not only won nine conference games but also won six non-conference games.

As winners of the W. C. L., the Spartans won the right to enter the district tournament at Alamosa.

The Spartan starting five consisted of five Seniors who formed a classy team that worked very well together. Prospects for next year's team look very promising.

The scores of the season follow:

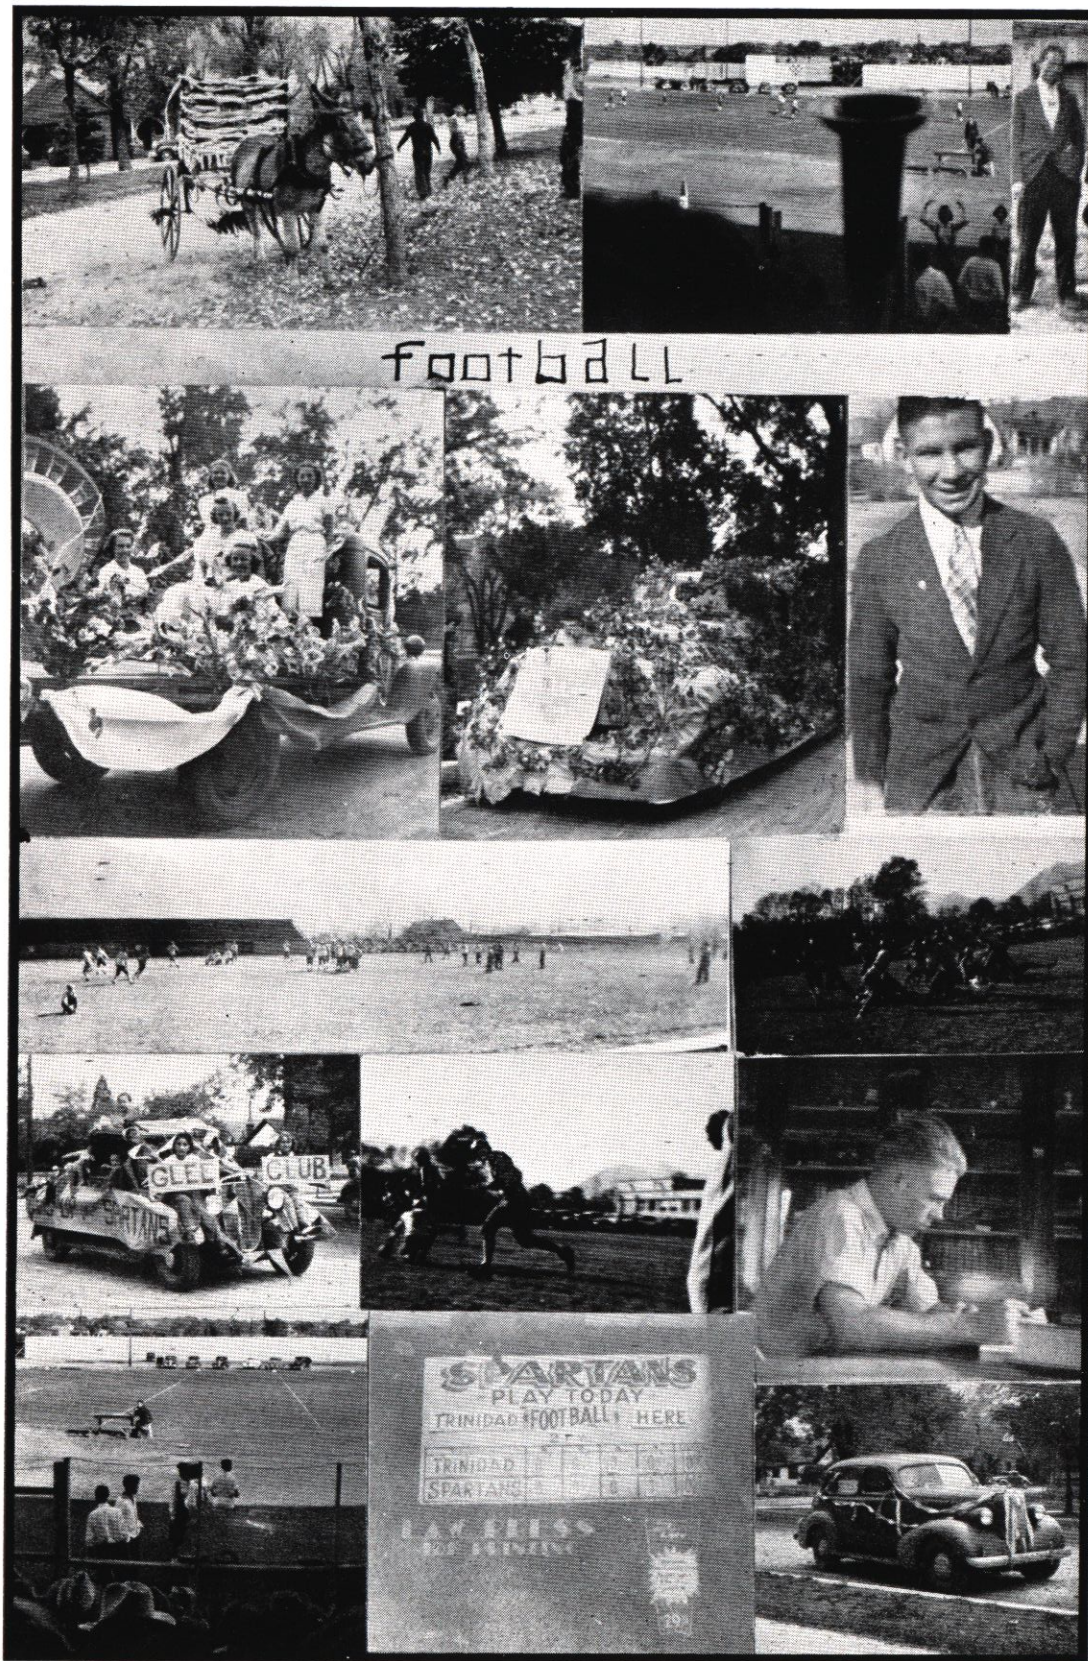

| | | | |
|---------------|----|-------------------|----|
| Salida | 20 | Monte Vista | 19 |
| Salida | 28 | Alamosa | 23 |
| Salida | 19 | Del Norte | 16 |
| Salida | 21 | Monte Vista | 14 |
| *Salida | 32 | Fairplay | 20 |
| *Salida | 46 | Buena Vista | 6 |

| *Salida | 41 | Buena Vista | 19 |
| *Salida | 42 | Fairplay | 10 |
| *Salida | 34 | Westcliffe | 16 |

*Conference games.

The members of the team were:

| | |
|-------------|--------------|
| Cribari, J. | Moltrer, P. |
| Gregg, T. | Smith, K. |
| Kochman, B. | Starbuck, A. |
| Kochman, W. | Thonhoff, B. |
| Lines, D. | Turner, J. |
| Mann, E. | Williams, F. |
| Miller, L. | Wilson, B. |

In the district tournament at Alamosa, Salida won a pair and lost a pair of games. Losing two games eliminated them from further tournament play. The Spartans won their first game from Hooper by a large score; the next game was lost to Mancos; the third game Salida won from Del Norte then went on into the quarter-finals to be defeated and eliminated by Cortez.

- 1 Spartans leave for Basketball Tournament in Alamosa. Good luck boys.
- 3 Assembly. American Week. Very interesting.
- 8 Girl Reserve Mother-Daughter Banquet. I hope the mothers enjoyed it.
- 10 Freshman Assembly. Pretty good Freshies.
- 11 Girl Reserve Convention at Canon. A good time was had by all.
- 15 "S" Club Meeting. I hope they had a good time.
- 17 F. H. C. St. Patrick's Dance. Lot of Irishmen.
- 22 Outside Speaker. Pay Assembly. Stuffed animals, too.
- 23 National Honor Society Assembly. Those are the smart kids.
- 24 School is out for Spring Vacation. Whoopee.

APRIL

- 3 Started back to school after vacation. Poor kids.
- 4 Grade Cards. They really lay it on us.
- 5 Girl Reserve Cabinet Meeting. We'll never know.
- 7 Easter Assembly in charge of the Girl Reserves. But there wasn't any bunny rabbit.
- 14 Student Council Dance. We all wore our Easter clothes.
- 20 Glee Club went to Pueblo. I hope they get home.
- 28 Open House. We all had our good work out for show.
- 29 Scholastic Contest. Our students made a good rating.

MAY

- 6 Junior-Senior Banquet. The biggest day of the year.
- 9 Beta Phi. There they go again.
- 17 Girl Reserve Meeting. There are just lots of girls.
- 26 Senior Class Play. The Seniors do their last bit for the school. Class Day. The Seniors look pretty in their caps and gowns.
- 28 Baccalaureate Services. Do they feel bad? Ask them

JUNE

- 2 Commencement. The Seniors go out into the world. Some sad—some glad.

WE'RE PROUD of our modern school system and enjoy cooperating each year with members of the faculty and student body.

JUST REMEMBER that your Salida Theatre is always glad to be of any service possible and that we endeavor to give you the very best in entertainment.

TEXTBOOK knowledge of science and mathematics was applied with such skill by graduates of other decades that today we have the radio, refrigerator, automatic range and scores of other aids to Better Living in the home.

Certain students of this year's class will bring honor to themselves and contribute much toward even greater comfort and convenience in the home of tomorrow.

We salute you and wish you success.

SINCERE GOOD WISHES TO THE
 1939 GRADUATING CLASS OF SALIDA HIGH
 ED. G. McCLAIN

JOKES

C. Sinclair: My mother made me take the cat off somewhere and lose it, so I put him in a basket and took him off into the hills.

Miss Halverson: Well, did you lose it?

C. Sinclair: Lose it? If I hadn't followed it I'd never got home.

Hitch Hiker: Hi, I'm going your way.

R. Johnson: Fine, I'll see you there.

Miss Mosgrove: An heirloom is something that is had by father and is handed down to his son.

Jimmy Muto: That's a funny name for pants.

B. Watters: Russell Davidson may be a fast driver, but even then I think he was bragging.

B. Lyons: How come?

B. Watters: He said that when he held out a stick it went rr-r-r-t-t-t-t on the mile posts.

Algy met a bear,
The bear was bulgy,
The bulge was Algy.

Mr. Lane: Did your sister enjoy her date with her boyfriend last night?

J. Hockett: She was never so humiliated in her life. When he started to eat his soup, five couples got up and began dancing.

M. Cribari: Hey, Betty, did you see my scarf anywhere?

B. Scull: You've got it on.

M. C.: Gee, I'm glad you told me or I'd have gone home without it.

S. Cribari: I see you have a cold.
C. Bennett: (Snuff, snuff). You can't see it now, can you?

C. Mehring: What are you scratching your head for?

W. Kochman: I got arithmetic bugs in my head.

Coach: What's that?

W. K.: That's cooties.

Coach: What have they to do with arithmetic?

W. K.: Well, they add to my misery, subtract from my pleasure, divide my attention and multiply like everything.

Mr. Barrett (General Science): What is a skeleton?

D. Edwards: A stack of bones with all the people scraped off.

L. Miller: Hello, is this the Best Laundry? You sent me a dozen old handkerchiefs instead of my shirt.

Laundry Girl: Sorry, your mistake; those weren't handkerchiefs, that's your shirt.

J. Steinbrock: Did you know Adam was a dancer?

V. Warner: No, how come?

J. S.: Well, he wiggled like a worm and then went into the big apple.

W. Fleck: I sure hope Roosevelt stays in office another term.

B. Roberts: Why?

W. Fleck: I just invented a W. P. A. shovel with a pillow to lean on and if the W. P. A. remains I'll soon be a rich man.

R. Davidson: My pigs are all sick and I don't know what to do.

M. Vaughn: Why don't you smoke 'em?

R. D.: Smoke 'em?

M. V.: Why sure, isn't that what all farmers do to cure them?

JOKES

"O, Mother," said Mary Alice, "look at that funny man across the street."
"What's he doing?"
"Why, he's sitting on the street talking to a banana skin."

H. Ostrum: (Days of '49). I had a beard like yours once and when I realized how it made me look, I shaved it off.

J. Smith: I had a face like yours once but when I realized I couldn't cut it off I grew a beard to cover it.

Policeman, (during baseball game): How did you get into that tree?

P. Moltzer: Ain't you got no sense? I sat on it when it was an acorn.

F. Perschbacher: Poor Tommy, he practices the accordion every night and cries like a baby.

Val Herrick: Why, does he play sad songs?

F. P.: No, the accordion pinches his stomach.

D. Harber: I wonder why a clock runs.

E. Bergman: You would too, if you had ticks.

N. Eggleston: (driving), Good night! Out of gas right in the middle of main street.

E. Eggleston: You can't stop for that, Norman, here comes a cop.

F. Lenox: What do you think would go best with my green and purple socks?

A. McKenna: Hip boots!

Mother: What is your little brother crying about?

T. Patton: He dug a big hole in the back yard and now he wants to bring it in the house.

Bud Thonhoff: Is this fountain sanitary?

Soda Clerk: Yes.

Bud: Do you belong to the union?

S. C.: Yes.

Bud: Do you sell the best products?

S. C.: Yes.

Bud: Then can I have a drink of water?

Y. Sneddon: You have the looks of a czar.

P. Brandon: Really?

Y. Sneddon: Yes, a czar puss.

J. Starbuck: The horse I was riding wanted to go one way and I wanted to go the other.

E. Mann: Who won?

J. S.: The horse tossed me for it.

B. Lotshaw: I saw your test paper in the English room. You had zero.

A. Amicone: That means nothing to me.

Mr. Hampshire: (Talking to an electrician who spoke broken English). How much is this battery?

Electrician: Vun and vun-half volts.

Mr. Hampshire: Well, how much is that in United States money?

W. Hagan: There's a man outside with a wooden leg named Smith.

R. Haley: What's the name of his other leg?

V. Herrick: (Who thinks that her country cousin is nervous). Can't you find anything better to squeeze than a felt hat?

Country Cousin: (Infatuated). Just wait a bit, I'm only reducin' my energy for fear I might hurt you.

Waiter: (Putting down a plate of soup). It looks like rain.

Mr. King: You're right, take it away, I ordered soup.

D. Jones: (Meeting a one-legged man on the street). Poor man, you've lost a leg, haven't you?

Man: (Looking down). Well, darned if I haven't.

Coach Mehring: Is your friend fast?

Doc Fleck: Why, he's so fast he's back before he starts, so he doesn't have to go.

Mr. Barrett: I want a Coca-Cola.

Mr. Burgener: I want orangeade.

Mr. Rouse: Well, I'm driving so I'll have a glass of water.

B. Burgener: How did you get all banged up?

F. Williams: Skiing.

B. Burgener: What happened?

F. Williams: I couldn't decide which side of the tree to go around.

J. Muto: Let's skip classes and take in a movie.

F. Degrazio: Can't, I need the sleep.

Rich Haley: Are you yawning?

D. Laughlin: No, I'm giving a silent Indian war whoop.

J. Smith: Did you ever hear the kettle song?

Lois Mc: No, what is it?

J. Smith: "Home, Home On the Range."

Elmer Everett: You complained you could see spots before your eyes, so your doctor told you to get glasses. Did they help you any?

Bob Preece: Sure, now I can see the spots much better.

Mr. Soles: Waiter!

Waiter: Yes, sir?

Mr. Soles: Have you ever been to a zoo?

Waiter: No sir.

Mr. Soles: You ought to go sometime; you'll get a kick out of watching the turtles zip past.

F. Smith: Can you stand on your head?

P. Skufca: No, its too high.

Traffic Cop: Here, here young lady! What's your name?

R. Spino: Oh, Mines Ruth, what's yours?

V. Sydenham: Where did you get that black eye?

H. Dougherty: I went to a dance and was struck by the beauty of the place.

E. Sneddon: What time is it?

A. Davenport: Quarter to.

E. Sneddon: Quarter to what?

A. Davenport: Dunno; times got so tough I had to lay off one of the hands.

Mr. McPhetres: I won't begin to-day's class until the room settles down.

G. Aby: Aw, go home and sleep it off, old man.

Gruenler: Name a great time-saver.

W. Kochman: Love at first sight.

S. Ostrum: I want a ticket for New York.

Ticket Agent: Do you wish to go by way of Buffalo?

S. Ostrum: Well, I really expected to go by train.

First Fly: Why are you making so much noise?

Second Fly: Whoopee, I just passed a screen test.

Ada A.: Do they have July fourth in England?

Mary M.: No, of course not.

Ada A.: Well, what comes after July third?

Melvin MelVIN!

M. Hyatt: What, ma?

Mother: Are you spitting in the gold fish bowl?

M. Hyatt: No, but I'm getting closer.

B. Bender: I got in trouble with Mr. Soles this morning.

M. Roberts: How?

B. Bender: He said all questions could be answered by either 'Yes' or 'No' so I asked: 'Have you stopped using bad language?'

I ask a simple question
'Tis only truth I wish,
Are all fishermen liars,
Or do only liars fish?

TYPISTS HAVE FUN, TOO?

My typist is on her vacation,

My typist's away fur a week,

My typist is on her vacation,

While these keys play hide and seek.

F. Resel: So there is no such thing as freckle cream?

A. Bonomo: No! How could there be freckle cream when you can't even milk a freckle?
